Snowfall in South Brings Populace Out to Gaze in Wonderment.

WHITE MANTLE IS OVER LARGE AREA

Invades Sections Where It Has Not Been Known for Many Years.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 25.—Snow fell over a large portion of Mississippi and Louisiana today, affording residents of that section of the country an unusual sight. It was much colder on the gulf coast and sleet fell, but there was no snow.

The heaviest fall reported was at Laurel, Miss., where the ground was covered with a six inch layer, with more coming down. At Meridian the fall amounted to three inches and at Natchez a thin coating covered the ground and housetops. People arose early to see the sight and at some places business was suspended. Fruit trees and garden products probably will suffer as the thermometer registered 32 degrees or lower almost to the coast.

"DISTURBANCE" DID IT.

Snows Invades Sections for First Time in Twenty Years.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Snow today invaded sections of the south where it has not been seen before in fifteen or twenty years. In Savannah there was two inches of snow the first in a score of years while Augusta had a like fall. New Orleans probably was the point farthest south to report snow—the first there since 1903.

An area of extremely cold air and a "disturbance" over the eastern part of the gulf of Mexico, were responsible, officials at the weather bureau stated today. More snow was forecast in the east gulf and south Atlantic states to-

DYING, HE HEARS WIFE'S FUNERAL BY TELEPHONE.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 25. A delicately adjusted telephone installed for the purpose, made it possible for former Judge James Inglis, who is dying of pneumonia, to hear the funeral service read over the body of his wife, Mrs. Ella M. Inglis. Though the service was held in the parlor of the Inglis home Mr. Inglish was too weak to leave his bedroom upstairs.

When the services were begun a receiver was lifted to Judge Inglis' ear, he kept it there until the last word was said in the room below. Mrs. Inglis died Sunday of pneumonia.

ROBBERS ATTACK STATE TREASURY

ESCAPE WITH BUT $5

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 25.—An unsuccessful attempt to dynamite the vault in the state treasurer's office here was made early today after two of the statehouse watchmen had been bound and gagged. The safe-blowers left the capitol building with only $5, which they took from a cash drawer in the treasurer's office.

Two separate explosions were caused around the door of the vault and the men were about to begin a third attempt when they were interrupted. A third watchman was said, by the police investigating the affair, to have been asleep in the supreme court room while the robbery was in progress.

The safe contained about $7,500 in currency and more than a million dollars worth of securities including $200,000 worth of capitol extension bonds, according to Wm. C. Brown, state treasurer.

WILL PROCEED TO GRAVE OF BENTON

Gen. Scott to Detail American Officer to Make Examination.

WAIVING NO RIGHTS

Washington, Feb. 25.—Gen. Villa's proposal for an American examination of the body of W. S. Benton, the English rancheman executed at Juarez without permitting its removal from Mexico has been accepted by this government without waiving, however, any further movement to demand its delivery on American soil.

British Consul Percival, at Galveston, was today ordered to proceed to El Paso at once where he is expected to arrive tomorrow to go to the grave in Juarez with a delegation of Americans. Gen. Scott, commanding the United States troops there will detail an American army surgeon and another officer to accompany the British consul. A member of Benton's family will be taken with the party. That course has been decided upon pending the outcome of efforts to secure the surrender of the body to Benton's family, which will not be abated in the least.

Further complicated by dispatches telling of official confirmation received by Consul Garrett, at Nuevo Laredo, of the hanging by Huerta troops of Clemente Veragara, an American, near Hidalgo, the Mexican situation took on more tensity if it could be said there was any change at all.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Robert B. WITH FOOD SUPPLY DOWN TO SIX EGGS

Passengers in Snow-Bound Train Rescued After Thirty Six Hours.

GIVE AMATEUR SHOWS

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 25.—After having been tied up in snow drifts for nearly thirty-six hours, passengers on stalled Illinois traction system and Wabash trains reached Decatur today. They amused themselves during their long wait by giving amateur theatricals on the train. They were rescued just as their food supply had dwindled to six eggs. One man had purchased twenty pounds of candy from the trainboy.

All steam lines out of Decatur were opened for the first time. The first C., H. & D. train from Indianapolis since Saturday arrived here. Two Illinois traction system cars are still buried in their windows at Monticello, but it is hoped to have them dug out by tonight.

Plans Chase for Rosenthal Slayers When He Gets Out of Prison.

IN HIGH SPIRITS OVER NEW TRIAL

Even Willing to Go Back to Police Department if He is Wanted.

Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 25.—As soon as Charles Becker gets out of prison he will devote all his energies, he says, to running down the men who are responsible for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

The former New York police lieutenant, who was granted a new trial yesterday for the Rosenthal murder, declared today that he could furnish information that would bring the real culprits to justice.

"After I have done that, I shall be willing to go back to the police department, if they want me. If they do not, I will enter some other line of work.

Four Others Downhearted.

"The four gun men are terribly downhearted today because they, too, were not granted a new trial. They thought their case was tied up with mine. When I was informed that I had been granted a new trial they immediately concluded they had, too. They were joyous. It was hard when they were told the truth. The four men who got life insurance policies from the district attorney for swearing away my life may yet be arrested for the murder of Rosenthal. I think that Harry Vallon is the man who fired the fatal shot. That's the reason he got drunk before the killing. He wanted to get his nerve up for the deed. He needed courage to pull the trigger of his revolver."

Becker was in high spirits today when the newspaper men met him in the warden's office. He burst into a torrent of

ONLY ONE-THIRD TURN OUT TO VOTE

Absence of Important Issues and Storm Keeps Women from the Polls.

SEVEN GO ON TICKETS

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Comparatively few Illinois women yesterday took advantage of their first opportunity to vote under the provisions of the new state suffrage law. Returns tabulated here today indicated that more than two-thirds of the registered women remained away from the primary elections held in many cities and towns of the state. In Chicago the total number of women who voted was 47,529, or about 30 per cent. of the 158,524 who had qualified. The heaviest woman's vote in the state was at Galesburg, the scene of a "wet" and "dry" contest, where the women cast nearly one-half of the total votes.

Absence of important issues and stormy weather were reported as the reasons for the light suffrage vote in Springfield, Quincy, Peoria, Bloomington and other cities of the state. Seven Chicago women who had no opposition, were nominated for aldermen. Three of them were progressives and four were socialists. Two women, candidates on the democratic ticket, had strong opposition and were defeated. Ten aldermen were retired to private life. All of them were democrats and with one exception were opposed by the Municipal Voters' league. In some cases their male opponents received the votes of more women than did the female candidates.

ELLIS FAILS TO GET HIS BABIES

Wife-Slayer's Children Not Permitted to Join Him in Chicago.

HE IS MUCH DEJECTED

Chicago, Feb. 25.—William Chaney Ellis, former Cincinnati leather merchant charged with the murder of his wife in a Chicago hotel last October, became dejected in court today when he heard that the Cincinnati court had refused to permit his children to be brought to him. He had planned to bring them to his side by a writ of habeas corpus.

While he was bemoaning their absence Judge Petit, presiding in the murder trial, sharply scored a county physician who was in doubt whether he could be present as a witness for the defense when called on.

"You will answer the subpoena of this court," said Judge Petit, or you will remain here till you are needed."

Ellis sat unmoved through the incident.

"My babies would be a great help to me now," said he. "What is the use of fighting for life and liberty when I can't have my babies?"

OFFICERS SEARCH FOR LONE BANDIT

Worked in Expert Fashion on Train Nearing San Francisco.

FILLED HIS POCKETS

San Francisco, Feb. 25.—Detectives are searching the city and suburbs today for the masked bandit who robbed the conductor, a brakeman and express messenger and the express company's safe on a Southern Pacific train late last night between Burlinghame, a suburb, and San Francisco, and jumped off the train as it was entering the outskirts of the city.

The bandit forced the conductor, Frank P. Cox, at the point of a pistol to enter the baggage car, robbed him of $45 and some jewelry and then turned his attention to H. Cairns, the brakeman, and Frank E. Foster, the Wells-Fargo agent, obtaining from them small sums.

Then the bandit compelled the express messenger to open the safe. Its contents were ransacked, the robber filling his pockets with packages. How much money he obtained was not made public.

Too Much of a Lift

ENGINE No. 7513, on the Pennsylvania road, "threw a tire" near Middlepoint, Ohio, the other day. Locomotive wheels have tires, the same as wagon wheels or automobile wheels, and when this tire comes off the engine doesn't get any farther. Word was sent to Fort Wayne as quickly as possible, and a relief engine was sent out to bring in the train. The tire was lifted onto the train and brought to Fort Wayne, where it was placed in the storeroom at the shops.

The matter then came under the charge of J. P. Shea, one of the power directors, who went over to the storeroom to look into the matter. "I'll take the broken tire over and show it to Patterson," observed Mr. Shea, referring to J. F. Patterson, the trainmaster.

He informed the foreman of the storeroom of his wishes to have the tire brought out so he could take it to Mr. Patterson for his personal inspection. Mr. Shea had abstractedly gotten the impression that the broken piece was of small size and of no great weight.

"Huh?" inquired the foreman.

"Yes, just bring it out here and I will take it over."

"Bring it out!"

"Yes, I want to take it over to show it to Mr. Patterson."

"But it's awful heavy."

"Never mind," observed Mr. Shea, with a smile, "just bring it out and I will see that it gets over all right." Mr. Shea is strong and muscular, and didn't mind a good strong lift.

"All right," observed the foreman, as he, and a number of others, disappeared into the building to get the required specimen. After a while they appeared with it. Mr. Shea looked on in astonishment.

"But it's awful heavy."

"Gee, how much does it weigh?" he asked.

"Twelve hundred pounds," responded the foreman.

"Well," said Mr. Shea, "I guess I'll go over and see if Mr. Patterson has got time to come over here and look at it. I find I'm a little weak this morning."

DEMOCRATS READY FOR CONVENTION

Many Candidates for State Offices to Attend the Meeting.

NEW COMMITTEEMEN

The political stage of the Twelfth district is set for the democratic congressional convention to be held Thursday afternoon at Auburn, and leaders in discussing the meeting today say that Hon. Cyrus Cline will be nominated for re-election without a shade of opposition. He has a clear field and the democracy of the Twelfth district is ready to stand back of him to the man. The convention will open at 2 o'clock and the Fort Wayne delegation will leave for Auburn in a special car over the Fort Wayne and Northwestern interurban at 12 o'clock.

A large number of candidates for state office will attend the convention, and among those who have decided definitely to be present are Senator Curtis, of Mt. Vernon, Posey county, seeking the nomination for attorney general; J. Fred Francs, of Indianapolis, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, and Dale Crittenberger, of Anderson, who is to enter the race for state auditor. George A. Bittler, of this city, a candidate for state treasurer, is busy with the state board of accounts in another part of the state and it is doubtful if he can manage to get away long enough to attend the meeting.

Democratic Committeemen.

A few contests were encountered Tuesday in the election of democratic precinct committeemen, and the voting was rather heavy and interesting in some parts of the city. The election of committeemen in precincts outside of the city was tame. The committeemen selected will meet Saturday afternoon to perfect the organization of the democratic county central committee, and it is said that W. A. Johnson will be a candidate for re-election as chairman. Otto Koenig, as a candidate for the secretaryship, will meet opposition in the person of George Lindemuth, who has decided to be a candidate for the place.

In the city precincts committeemen were elected as follows:

First precinct, William Ringwalt; second, Dennis Gorman; third, John L. Lantenier; fourth, A. Lagras; fifth, Albert E. Melching; sixth, Harry C. Lowry; seventh, C. O. Lepper; eighth, Edward Kronmiller; ninth, Christian Hahn; tenth, John J. Bauer; eleventh, Andrew Fox; twelfth, Daniel Falvy; thirteenth, F. H. Kleekamp; fourteenth, ...; fifteenth, A. C. Bieberich; sixteenth, George Schaefer; seventeenth, Chas. Bandt; eighteenth, John Koch; nineteenth, F. W. Brandt; twentieth, J. B. Ryan; twenty-first, C. Mervic; twenty-second, Benjamin Richter; twenty-third, Benjamin Johnson, twenty-fourth, L. C. Schraeder; twenty-fifth, Allen Martin; twenty-sixth, Henry W. Felger; twenty-seventh, Wm. Quinn.

Outside the City.

Eleven out of twenty townships had reported on their elections at noon today and Secretary John Wessel does not expect a complete report until Thursday morning. The eleven townships reported as follows:

Progressive Committeemen.

County Chairman Charles M. Preble, of the progressive committee, will not have a complete report on yesterday's selections until the last of the week. Those reported thus far are as follows:

Second precinct, E. B. Robinson; fourth, Christian Piepenbrink; sixth, M. J. Moylan; seventh, Lee J. Hartzell; eighth, L. H. Bookwalter; ninth, M. J. Wilcox; tenth, Frank Ziegler; fifteenth, A. J. Pembroke; sixteenth, A. P. Double; seventeenth, E. H. Jacobs; eighteenth, Sherman Hull; nineteenth, D. C. McKeeman; twentieth, Ward Burger; twenty-first, Fred Schmerling; twenty-second, J. G. A. Motz; twenty-third, J. H. Hartzog; twenty-sixth, Alexander McKeeman; twenty-seventh, W. H. Walker; Washington B, George Griswold; Pleasant, Dewey Woods; Eel River, Chauncey Heffelfinger; Springfield, Oscar Boulton; Lafayette, Elmer Stump; Marion, O. A. Hadley; Adams A, W. C. Muhlenbruck.

Delay in Reports.

Officials of the republican central committee say they have experienced a delay in receiving reports and it is not believed that a complete list will be obtainable until the last of the week. Those received at noon today were as follows:

VON DIEDERICHS ADMITS THREAT

rying out the orders of Admiral Dewey.

This admission was made today in the course of a further narrative of events given to the Associated Press.

The controversy between Admiral Dewey and the German admiral arose over the visiting between the vessels of the various powers, which, according to Admiral Diederichs, was quite promiscuous. He admitted there was a certain justice in Admiral Dewey's complaint as to the German ships being constantly on the move, although this was necessary and in no way meant to be unfriendly.

The bulk of the German squadron was about to be withdrawn, said the German commander, when the conflict arose over the right of visitation and he then decided to retain his whole force there.

Blamed Dewey for Clash.

Admiral von Diederichs blamed Admiral Dewey for the clash and intimated that it would never have arisen if the American commander had merely protested officially about two trivial incidents instead of firing shots in order to stop two German pinnaces. One of them was passing the American vessels and was held up because her flag was not showing plainly and the other was approaching the Olympic at night with a message and was not promptly identified.

The German admiral felt that Admiral Dewey's action was decidedly unfriendly. He sent his flag lieutenant, von Hintze, to make a formal protest against the action of the McCulloch in halting the German cruiser Irene in order to learn her identity. This, said the German admiral, was the incident incorrectly attributed to the Cormoran by Admiral Dewey.

The American admiral retaliated with an announcement that no ship, commercial or naval, would be allowed to pass his lines. He then announced his intention of sending an officer on board every warship arriving in the bay "to make inquiry and to establish her identity."

The word "inquiry" apparently aroused the ire of the German admiral, who identified it even today with a claim to the right to cross-examine any German commander.

Told Him He'd Shoot.

Admiral von Diederichs says he discussed the situation with the British commander and told him that he would shoot any officer attempting to carry out this order of Admiral Dewey. A substantial victory for the Germans was claimed by Admiral von Diederichs in the final settlement, by which any arriving warship was to report itself to the American commander and afterward was required only to show its flag. According to Admiral von Diedrichs, his call on the Spanish authorities was justified by the fact that no blockade had been formally proclaimed.

Before leaving Manila Admiral von Diedrichs and Admiral Dewey exchanged presents and cordial letters, burying the hatchet and blaming the newspapers for the friction.

Admiral von Diedrichs said he had hoped the affair had been forgotten and Admiral Dewey's action in reviving the controversy in an erroneous statement was a matter of surprise to him.

The German admiral, a little man with closely cropped gray mustache, with nothing of the appearance of a sailor, took issue with the statements made by Admiral Dewey in his autobiography and said he felt himself forced to give his side of the case out of consideration for the honor of his country and his officers.

Cause of Troubles.

Admiral von Diedrichs attributed the troubles between the Germans and the Americans largely to malicious reports in the English papers in China and the absence of definite regulations governing the blockade and the movements of foreign warships. He indicated, however, that a latent mistrust was responsible in a measure.

He was desirous of co-operating with and supporting Admiral Dewey from the beginning, he said, but the American admiral's fondness for Captain Chichester, in command of the British squadron, and the time Admiral Dewey spent with the British officers, kept him from seeing as much of Admiral Dewey as he would have wished.

Mildly, but very decidedly, Admiral von Diederichs declared the account of the incidents, as related in the autobiography contains many errors, which he attributed probably to defective memory of the events or to misinformation obtained from subordinates. He expressed regret that the Manila affair had been raked out of oblivion, hoping that the misunderstandings had been smoothed over. He and Admiral Dewey were friends and had exchanged visits, letters and gifts.

SOON TO LEAVE DEATH HOUSE.

Becker to Be Returned to Tombs Prison Tomorrow.

New York, Feb. 25.—Charles Becker, former police lieutenant convicted of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who has just been granted a new trial, was visited in the death house at Sing Sing prison today by his attorney, Joseph A. Shay. Tomorrow, the attorney told Becker, he expects to serve the remittitur of the court of appeals on the prison warden. Becker will then leave the death house where he has been confined since the fall of 1912 and be returned to a cell in the Tombs prison here until the final disposition of his case.

Behind him in the death cells, Becker will leave the four gun men convicted of the actual killing of Rosenthal, whose protest against the police graft system in New York, it was charged, caused him to be shot to death. The court of appeals overruled the petition of the gunmen, "Dago Frank" Cirofici, "Gyp the Blood" Horowitz, "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg and "Whitey" Lewis, and they will be executed next month unless the governor grants executive clemency.

The opinion was expressed by the attorneys and friends of Becker that he would never be tried again as the instigator of the murder of Rosenthal and there was also much talk that Becker, if he eventually goes free, will seek reinstatement on the police force.

District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, who will determine when Becker shall be tried again, has thus far refused to say what further action he will take in the case. It is known, however, that Mr. Whitman believes that a second trial would be futile in the face of the court of appeals decision. That decision in effect stamps "Sam" Schepps, one of the principal witnesses for the state, as an accomplice in the murder plot which "Jack" Rose, "Bridgie" Weber and Harry Vallon confessed, implicating Becker.

When informed of the court's action Becker's first thought was of his wife, whose loyalty to him has never waned. He asked that she be notified. Later he met newspaper men and to them he expressed his feeling of happiness and confidence of ultimate freedom.

Becker's stay of sixteen months in the death house has resulted in changes in his appearance. He has improved in health and he looks like an athlete. He has read a great deal—the bible, Shakespeare and many works of literature—for a purpose which he refused to disclose. Warden Clancey, to whom fell the duty of supplying Becker with books, told of having been hard put several times to obtain the works desired.

"What do I think of it?" Becker said in answer to a question.

"Well, what would you think of it if you heard such news after you had been in this place for sixteen months, sentenced to death for a crime you never committed. I am pleased beyond words, of course.

"I tell you that death house is an awful place. Just think of it! I've seen twelve men march past my cell to die since I have been there. Most of them went like men, too. But you can believe that things like that are hard on any one's nerves. I've fought to keep out these influences from my mind and I've succeeded."

When a previous request was made through Warden Clancey for a statement, Becker sent a paper containing Books of Ecclesiastes—chapter 51, 1st to 17th verses inclusive.

"They express my sentiments," he said.

Jack Rose, the chief witness for the state against Becker, said today that he was ready to testify again in the case if wanted. He showed feeling when mention was made of the suggestion that Becker was made a victim in order that he and others who confessed their part in the plot might be saved. "If it can be proved," he said, "that it was a frame-up. I want to take the cell made vacant by Becker. I want to take the penalty."

ANOTHER HEARING FIRST OF APRIL

Wayne Trace Elevation to Come Up in Indianapolis That Date.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Another hearing on the proposed separation of grades at the crossing of Wayne Trace and the Pennsylvania railroad will be held before the railway section of the Indiana public utilities commission on the first of April next. At that time the Pennsylvania railroad will submit its plans for elevation, the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad will submit its plans for shifting a considerable section of its right of way and Allen will offer its plans for the work it must do. This was the agreement reached today by Judge J. T. McClure, of the state commission, the Allen county commissioners and representatives of the two railroads following a visit of inspection by all of them to the site of the proposed improvement. The factor in the problem is the C. H. & D. railroad, which is not enthusiastic about shifting its right of way to the south in order to eliminate what is a dangerous and needless grade crossing, to obviate the construction of a tunnel beneath the Pennsylvania track, an expedient that is moreover forbidden by the law. The Pennsylvania railroad is ready to make agreement to complete the work by October 1, 1915, if not forced to proceed with operations now. The interested property owners are practically unanimous in acquiescing in such an arrangement. The trip to the scene of the proposed grade separation this morning was made by Judge McClure, County Commissioners James D. Butt, William C. Schwier and Albert J. Black; Superintendent W. H. Wardrop, Division Engineer Guy Scott and Trainmaster Jesse Patterson, of the Pennsylvania railroad, and Superintendent M. V. Hines, of the Dayton and Ironton division of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad. Many of the property owners affected and some farmers greatly interested in the improvement met the inspection party at the crossing.

FRAME FIGHT ON FREE TOLL

yet been determined whether initial action would be taken by the house or the senate, but that he was sure the resolution would be put through with little difficulty.

Both Palmer and Sherley originally voted against the exemption. Other administration leaders, however, such as Representatives Underwood and Kitchin, who voted for it, do not feel that they can make the argument for reversal, though they themselves will not take part in any opposition to the president.

It is practically certain now that the fight will be led by Representatives Palmer and Sherley as soon as the president indicates in a letter to some member of congress his reasons for desiring the repeal. There is confidence at the white house that both houses of congress soon will repeal the protested clause without difficulty.

Norris Resolution Beaten.

The Norris resolution calling upon the attorney general for information regarding the New Haven dissolution agreement was virtually defeated in the senate today, being laid on the table.

The resolution was tabled 33 to 23, on motion of Senator Reed, democrat, who attacked it as a reflection on the attorney general.

Alaskan Bill Taken Up.

After many delays the Alaska bill finally was taken up in conference today with prospect of being returned to the senate and house for final passage tomorrow. Senate managers were ready to accept nearly all house amendments with the exception of the mandatory provision for standard gauge spurs.

Old Formula Changed.

Hereafter vessels of the navy will be christened with the words, "I name thee in the name of the United States" instead of the old formula "I christen thee." The change was announced today by the Society of Sponsors of the United States Navy following its annual meeting here. The society also went on record in favor of a federal law to prevent discrimination against naval uniforms. Mrs. Reynolds Thomas Hall, of Philadelphia, was chosen president and Secretary Daniels, of the navy department, and Mrs. Daniels honorary member and vice president respectively of the society.

Secretary Bryan discussed the situation with the senate foreign relations committee and for more than two hours answered questions by senators. Both the secretary and senators declined to discuss their conference except to say the trend was to get at the facts, leaving questions of policy for future determination.

"What we were seeking to establish," said Mr. Bryan, "was the actual situation; all the facts regarding the Huerta government and the constitutionalist movement. We did not talk policies.

Senator Shively, acting chairman of the committee, said he would issue a statement later. Representative Atney, of Pennsylvania, republican, today introduced a resolution directing the president to transmit to the house "all information that may be in his possession or in possession of the state department regarding the treatment of citizens of the United States and the other countries in Mexico. It was referred to the foreign affairs committee.

AWAIT BRITISH CONSUL.

Perceval Expected at El Paso to Begin Thorough Investigation.

El Paso, Feb. 25.—Interest in the case of William S. Benton, who was executed by Gen. Villa at Juarez eight days ago, centered today in the arrival of Charles Perceval, British consul at Galveston, who was expected here today to make a thorough investigation. His efforts to find out just how Benton was killed it was expected would bring a definite statement from Gen. Villa at Chihuahua as to what may be done with the body.

Reports of Villa's intentions were vague and varied last night, ranging from a flat refusal to deliver the body to permission to relatives to visit the grave. It was reported also that he would permit an examination of the body later.

FEDERALS AT IT, ALSO.

Hanging of Vergara, American Citizen, is Confirmed.

Laredo, Mexico, Feb. 25.—Official confirmation of the hanging of Clemente Vergara, American citizen, by Mexican federals near Hidalgo, Mex., was received today by United States Consul Garrett, at Nuevo Laredo. The report said Vegara's body is still hanging three miles from Hidalgo. Consul Garrett left for the scene immediately.

Vergara was a citizen of Webb county, Texas, where he engaged in the ranching business. He used an island in the Rio Grande, opposite his ranch at Palafox, Tex., as pasture for his horses. Vergara complained that Mexican federals were stealing his horses and a small detachment of Texas rangers were sent to his ranch.

On Feb. 13, Mexicans appeared on the island and called to Vergara to come over, saying they would pay him for the horses. The rangers advised against compliance with the request but the ranchman decided to go. When Vergera reached the island, according to reports, he was struck in the back of the head by the soldiers and made unconscious. He was then carried into the interior of Mexico. Representations in behalf of Vergara were made at Nuevo Laredo and to Gen. Mass, at Monterey. The ranchman's release was promised and apprehension for his safety was allayed until his long absence caused additional inquiries to be made.

NEW THEATER TO BE BEAUTY

Plans for the new playhouse have been completed by Rapp brothers, of Chicago, famous throughout the country as theater architects, and show a splendid building of impressive and ornate exterior and interior finish and appointments that in beauty and luxury will place it second to no theater in the country.

The balcony will carry a row of boxes clear around and will resemble the famous "diamond horseshoe" of the Metropolitan opera house in New York.

George Rapp, of the architectural firm, State Building Factory Inspector Nelson Kayser, City Building Inspector Philip Wyss, Mayor Hosey, the members of the board of works and Messrs. Stouder and Barnett had a conference at the city hall this afternoon and examined the plans. Every effort is made in the plans to comply with not only city building ordinances, but the best modern practice in the designing and engineering of theater architecture.

Rumors of this new theater enterprise have been afloat for some time, but this announcement is the first authoritative and detailed statement of the project that is now under way.

FORMER MINISTER IN BAD.

Rev. Francis C. Baker to Be Sentenced for Grand Larceny.

New York, Feb. 25.—Rev. Francis C. Baker, formerly a Congregational minister in Waterbury, Conn., will be sentenced on Tuesday for grand larceny in connection with a loan swindle for which his partner, Wm. Harney, was sentenced to ten months in prison. The two men induced their victims to pay fees for the work of "searching" titles to properties offered the defendants as security for loans. The titles would be declared unsatisfactory and the fees kept by Baker and Harney. The latter was a witness in Baker's trial. Baker is 50 years old and an attorney living in Brooklyn.

RIVAL DELEGATIONS THERE.

So-Called Goethals Police Bills Stir Fight at Albany.

New York, Feb. 25.—Rival delegations went to Albany today to appear at the legislative hearing on the so-called Goethals police bills. Mayor Mitchel headed a group of prominent citizens who wished to see the bills passed. Wm. B. Ellison, a former corporation counsel, was the chief representative of the opposition, which is backed by organizations within the police department. The purpose of the bills is to enlarge the powers of the New York police commissioner. They were introduced to pave the way for Col. George W. Goethals to accept this office.

ATTACK NEVADA DIVORCE LAW.

New Statute to Be Tested in Case Filed at Carson City.

Reno, Nev., Feb. 25.—Proceedings to test the constitutionality of the Nevada divorce law requiring twelve months' residence were taken today when application was made in the supreme court at Carson City for a writ of mandate directed against Judge Moran, of the Second district for Washoe county, to show cause why he should not enter an order taking jurisdiction in a case based on seven months' residence. It is expected the order will be issued for an early hearing as the case was begun avowedly as a test of the law. The case is that of Alfred Worthington against Cecilia Worthington. The defendant resides in Santa Clara county, California.

CLOSER STILL.

They were discussing horse-racing.

"I guess," observed the Yankee, "I've seen the closest race ever run, for I once saw a horse adjudged winner by a tongue's length."

"Is that so?" drawled the Englishman. "Well, I've seen a closer race than that. I lived two years in Scotland."

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

TO BE SOLD UNDER SHERIFF'S HAMMER

Site of Charloe, Former County Seat of Paulding County, Will Be Turned Into Farm.

Paulding, O., Feb. 25.—On Saturday, March 14, the sheriff of Paulding county will sell about forty lots that comprise the business section of the once prosperous village of Charloe. In days gone by the town of Charloe occupied a picturesque site on the high banks of the Auglaize river in northern Paulding county. It was a town of several hundred souls. The old village glories in Indian legend.

Charloe was named from an Indian chief. After the Indians left the land it was secured by B. F. Hollister, who promised to erect a court house if the county seat was moved to Charloe from New Rochester, near Cecil. This was done and the promise was made good. Charloe was the county seat of Paulding county from 1841 to 1851. The court house was a two-story brick with stone foundation. The inside woodwork was all of black walnut, as was the furniture. The structure was 30 feet wide and 40 feet long and cost $10,000. When completed it was presented to the county commissioners and Mr. Hollister laid his land out in town lots.

When the county seat was moved to Paulding Mr. Hollister was dead, and his heirs being well off, made no effort to secure back the land. The building was used for school purposes until it was declared unsafe. In time most of it was carried away to be used in other buildings and simply left to fall to pieces as historic structures in northwestern Ohio are in the habit of doing, the people taking no interest in their historic grounds and buildings.

The hotel, storeroom and other buildings of the town followed the career of the court house. Today the little village that once boasted of several hundred souls has but three families in it. The lots will be sold by the sheriff and will probably be bought in by someone for a farm.

Charloe was an important trading point at one time in its career and was well known over a large scope of territory.

In contracting with Mr. Blossom in advance the board is doing what boards in other cities, Auburn's size, are doing and is planning its program for three years ahead.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Saltz is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

LIVED 80 YEARS ON SAME FARM.

Lewis Enyart, Pioneer of Cass County Since 1834, Dies at 91.

Logansport, Ind., Feb. 25. Lewis Enyart, aged 91, one of the first pioneers of Cass county, is dead at the old farm home where he had resided in Clay township, four miles north of this city, since 1834.

He was the son of Benjamin and Sarah Miller Enyart, and came with them to the home in Clay township when he was ten years of age, and this farm and this house was his home from those days when Indians roamed the woods and hills to the day of his death. This farm was transferred to Benjamin Enyart by the United States government, and the deed bears the autograph of Andrew Jackson. Upon the death of the father Lewis Enyart continued in charge of the home place and remained there to the day of his death.

He is survived by one brother, Pierce Enyart, of Medford, Ore., and the following nephews and nieces: Charles A. Enyart and W. B. Enyart, of this city; Jesse E. Enyart, of Medford, Ore.; B. F. Barnett, of Logansport; Mrs. Sarah Davidson, of Clay township; Mrs. Sallie Williamson, of Chicago.

IS PAROLED; WILL GET MARRIED.

Jake Folk Is Released From Jail to Which He Voluntarily Returned.

Huntington, Ind., Feb. 25. After serving six months in jail, a term that was split in two installments by reason of the fact that he escaped and was absent a year, Jacob "Klondike" Folk has been paroled by order of Judge S. E. Cook, of the circuit court. At once upon being released Folk began preparations to go to Toledo to marry a young woman to whom he is engaged. She came here a few weeks ago and was ready to be married to Folk while he was a prisoner. Folk tried to get permission for the performance of the ceremony in jail, but the authorities refused and the county clerk announced that he would issue no license.

Folk was arrested about two years ago and convicted of a statutory offense. He was sentenced to two years in the county jail and given a heavy fine. After serving a few weeks he broke jail with James Moran. Last fall he returned and voluntarily surrendered to Sheriff W. E. Scott. Since then he has been a model prisoner.

NOW NEAR NEW PARIS.

Government Engineers for Big Canal Are Working.

Goshen, Ind., Feb. 25.—Surveyors Davis and Brown, of the U. S. engineer corps, are now working west of New Paris. These men are following the course of Turkey Creek. Attention will be given the Elkhart river and gauging stations will be built all along that stream.

Turkey creek, which has its rise in Little Syracuse lake, a branch of lake Wawasee, and takes care of the overflow in the lake district of that section, only wanders through a part of Kosciusko and Elkhart counties, but the Elkhart river rises near Rome City. Special attention is given the guaging stations along the St. Joe river with a view to diverting that stream to furnish water for the canal. The route through the Wawasee lake district and along the Elkhart and St. Joe rivers was the route adopted by the originator of the project.

MONTPELIER TO BOOST SELF.

Montpelier, Ind., Feb. 25.—Montpelier's promotion club, now in the process of organization, is to have a capital stock of $10,000. Shares of stock will be sold at $10 each, but stock subscriptions will not have to be paid until money is needed for the location of a factory. If $1,000 is needed an assessment of 10 per cent will be made and the stockholder will be required to pay into the club $1 for each $10 share that he owns. When building sites and buildings are offered as an inducement for factories to locate in the city, the title to the real estate will not be transferred but will remain vested in the Promotion club, and if for any reason the factory removes from the city the building will remain for another industry.

PRICE OF GAS WILL STICK.

Kendallville, Ind., Feb. 25. The price of gas in Kendallville will remain the same. There will be no cut rates and likely no increase.

This fact was learned today when A. F. Ryall, the new president and general manager of the Indiana Fuel & Light company, said that the company had reorganized and would in the future be governed by the public utility commission.

Schedules and estimates were filed with the commission by the company's attorney, who has just returned from Indianapolis. All of the estimates and schedules have been approved by the commission.

Take Soda for Acid Stomach or Indigestion--Try It

Indigestion, says a noted authority, is not caused by a lack of digestive juices, but by an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which promotes food fermentation, thus retarding digestion. Then our meals sour in the stomach and bowels like garbage sours in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon, then we get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest; we eructate food, belch gas and have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash or nausea.

He tells us that to instantly neutralize these stomach acids and stop food fermentation we must get a package of Bisurated Magnesia (not the ordinary kind) at any pharmacy and take one tablet any time followed by a tumbler of water, which immediately settles the stomach; absorbs the gases and sweetens the entire digestive system.

He states that men and women who can trace their disordered stomachs and indigestion to acidity should not hesitate to take this harmless antacid at any time, as it is simply a compound of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. S. P.—Adv.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Matthew 12:1-13.

1 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungered, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue;

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto him, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth: and it was restored whole, like as the other.

Wilson and Another Term

It will be noted that the vastly greater part of the worrying now being done over the question whether the president will or will not be a candidate for another term is being indulged in by republicans and progressives. If the issue is disturbing the democrats, the members of President Wilson's own party are very cleverly concealing the fact. We are hearing much from progressive party sources calculated to adhere to the assumption that under no circumstances will Mr. Wilson seek re-election; that inasmuch as the platform upon which he was chosen declared for a single term only, and that to disregard it would invite determined opposition from influential men of his own party. Republicans, too, are letting it be known that in their opinion a second term for Mr. Wilson is not to be considered.

Never more definitely was wish the father to thought than in this rather remarkable political situation. Plainly there is keen dread upon the part of both republicans and progressives that eventualities may bring Mr. Wilson into the race again in 1916, despite the plank in the Baltimore platform which pledged him to a single term, and which he will unquestionably desire to respect. We do not believe President Wilson of his own volition will seek another term, but as the situation develops, he may be powerless in the hands of a public which will demand it whether or no and regardless of platform declarations to the contrary. If there be a change of front, it is much more likely that the democratic party and not President Wilson will make it. He has given no sign and no hint of his personal attitude in the light of developments since he assumed the chair in the white house, but if he is successful in continuing in the high public confidence he has already achieved, and his administration "makes good" throughout as it has started to do, the matter of decision will be taken out of his hands altogether. It will be quite as impossible for political opponents to prevent his renomination and his re-election as it would have been to have prevented the election of Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt when they were swept into power over an opposition that was then disheartened and disorganized.

Because, it is said, he desired to consider the matter more fully, Councilman Ofenloch did not introduce in the city council last evening the ordinance to compel proper ventilation of city street cars and providing a penalty for carrying lighted cigars, pipes and cigarettes into the cars. Councilman Ofenloch should not hesitate. It is distinctly in the interest of public health to have adequate ventilation in the cars, and the mere payment of a five-cent fare conveys no right upon anybody to make a nuisance of himself by inflicting his cigar, his pipe or his cigarette upon other passengers in a car to whom it may be offensive and nauseating. Fort Wayne has already tolerated this practice too long.

After all, the refusal of many Chicago women voters to go to the primary polls on Tuesday for the reason that they would then be compelled to declare an alliance with one or the other of the political parties and be at least morally bound to support its nominees, may have been the best sort of political strategy. They argue very wisely that without obligation of any sort they will be able to make their power vastly more apparent in the clean-up which they will attempt at the election a few weeks hence.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad system has decided, beginning March 1, to discontinue the sale of liquor on its trains throughout its territory. Evidently the New Haven system is anxious to convince the public that its reformation is going all the way through.

PRESS ON AMERICAN RAILWAY OFFICIAL.

Pleasing Indorsement.

Boston Globe: "The selection of Mr. Henry W. Thornton, an American, to be general manager of the Great Eastern, is pleasing indorsement of our methods of developing railroad men."

Justification.

Philadelphia Press: "Though the English newspapers are protesting against the appointment of Mr. Thornton as a slur on the efficiency of English railroad men, the directors of the Great Eastern appear to have complete justification for desiring to inject new blood into the system."

American Methods.

Syracuse Post-Standard: "American transportation needs have created American railroad builders and managers, who are the superiors of any other on earth."

The British System.

Pittsburg Dispatch: "American railroading and, indeed American industry and business generally develops initiative and individuality among the capable, whereas the British system is more apt to produce more cogs in the wheels."

The Man Wanted.

Philadelphia Record: "The Great Eastern needed a general manager, and the officials didn't find just the man they wanted at home, and did find him on the Long Island railroad."

The United States.

Cincinnati Enquirer: "Certainly, if there is necessity for a call upon some foreigner to take command of a railroad in England the choice would naturally fall to the United States, the country of most remarkable development of railroads."

Common Sense.

Charleston News and Courier: "It is only common sense for those who are responsible for the conduct of any important enterprise to secure the services of the best equipped man they can find, regardless of whether he be a home man or an importation."

BARS BLOODHOUND EVIDENCE.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

Popular faith in the bloodhound tradition is touching. Despite repeated ridiculous results such as that where the faithful animal was found vigilantly guarding the treed sheriff who had strayed ahead of the posse, the notion survives that bloodhounds can and will run down criminals who have eluded human pursuers. But that faith in the idea should be so strong as to induce a jury of presumably sensible men to bring in a verdict of murder on no other evidence than a supposed motive, and the fact that bloodhounds had led the officers to the alleged murderer's location is carrying tradition a little too far. That, at least, is the opinion of the supreme court of Illinois, which has ordered a new trial in the case of Ray Pfanschmidt, of Quincy, convicted on the testimony of the bloodhounds of quadruple murder.

One night in the fall of 1912 the Pfanschmidt house was burned down and the bodies of his father, mother, sister and a teacher who boarded with them found in the ruins with evidences of having been murdered. The son was suspected because he was heavily in debt, the supposition being he had committed the crime for the insurance. The bloodhounds being employed to find him did so and the intelligent jury endorsed the hounds.

The case with which modern bloodhounds are deceived or deceive was shown recently when they were diverted from a scent by a pair of old rubbers. As a matter of fact, whatever may have been the scenting ability of the bloodhounds of other days, resting on legend more than evidence, the modern so called bloodhound is very often only a near bloodhound. It is gratifying to know that a man's life can not be snuffed out just because a bloodhound sniffs at him. Even if they are used for pursuit they ought to be kept out of the witness stand.

Society

The members of the Friday Bridge club and a few other ladies who made up five tables at auction bridge were guests yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Howell C. Rockhill. Mrs. Rockhill is not a member of the club, but she has often been a substitute player in the absence of some member and her entertainment yesterday was in recognition of similar favors. Very pretty decorations of pink sweetpeas in the livingroom and pink roses on the diningroom table were a pleasure to the guests and a supper at the close of the game further contributed to the charm of the party.

Over thirty ladies enjoyed a game of bridge as guests of Mrs. Eugene Troendel, of Beaver avenue, on Monday afternoon. Many carnations were used in decorating the rooms and their spicy fragrance was a continual pleasure and contributed to the happiness of the guests. A daintily served supper followed the card playing.

The young women who planned and executed the giving of a charity hop for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse League more than realized their expectations last night when the dance took place in the ballroom of the Commercial club. As the tickets sold for a dollar each only, the outlay was kept as low as possible and no money was spent on decoration or refreshment. The music by the Metropolitan orchestra was delightful. The musicians were screened by palms and ferns placed in the hall by Miss Flick. It is expected to clear more than one hundred and fifty dollars for the league, and at least that amount seems certain. One of the unusual and agreeable things of the evening was the singing of Miss Edith Nickell. Miss Nickell is one of the young women interested in giving the hop, so by request she sang a group of songs. Mr. Balhe played her accompaniments. Miss Virginia Olds, mother of the young women interested in the cause, gave a group of special dances with Mr. Gessler as her partner. They danced during the intermission and received many compliments for their graceful work. The young women who arranged the dance were: Miss Edna Heit, chairman of the committees, and Misses Ruth Gumpper, Helen McGee, Ruth Caldwell, Irma Poole, Virginia Olds, Jessie Orrock, Olga Rice, Ellen Doyle, Helen Colerick, Mary Menefee, Louise Pickard, Vera Tresselt, Elizabeth Porter, Gladys Walker, Nellie Witt, Maribel Olds, Mildred Saylor, Catherine McCurdy, Madge Magee, Edith Nickell and Mrs. Arnold Tresselt. There were about one hundred and fifty people in attendance and the out of town guests included Miss Meta Schirmer, of Saginaw, Mich., and C. E. Caldwell, jr., of Toledo, O.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beattie and daughter, Miss Dorothy, are spending this week in Chicago and will return on Saturday.

Cards have been received by Fort Wayne friends announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington, of Terre Haute.

Earl Arndt, jr., and Miss Florence Arndt, of Reese, Mich., are here spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiegmann, of East Wayne street.

C. E. Caldwell, jr., returned to Toledo, O., today after a few days' visit in the city. Mr. Caldwell was one of the out of town guests at the Charity hop last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Earle and Miss Lutie Earle, of Albion, are guests of Mrs. Helen B. Williams, of 121 West Creighton avenue. Mrs. Earle and Mrs. Williams are sisters.

Mrs. George Clark, of 448 West DeWald street, who was to entertain the Pythian Sisters social circle tomorrow afternoon, is unable to do so on account of illness in the family. The meeting is therefore postponed.

Mrs. M. C. Norton, of Washington boulevard west, is entertaining several guests from Anderson and tomorrow afternoon will entertain at bridge in their honor. The visitors are Mrs. E. C. Toner, Mrs. W. M. Kroan, Mrs. Fred Mustard and Mrs. T. M. Stillwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yaste, of Huffman street, entertained a few of their friends last evening at progressive pedro. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and greens. Each guest received a pretty favor. An excellent supper was served after the card game. The prize winners were Miss Helen T. Fox and Mrs. J. Smith.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, of Chicago, is to lecture in Huntington tomorrow evening on the suffrage question. Mrs. McCormick is a well known worker in the cause both in her own state and in the national organization of workers for woman's suffrage. All women of this city who are interested in the cause are invited to attend this lecture on Thursday evening, which will be at 8 o'clock. Interurban cars on the Huntington line leave this city at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Church chaperoned a party of boys and girls on a bob-sled ride about the city on Monday evening. William Morris furnished the sled and after the ride the young folks gathered at the home of Miss Louise Yager, in Lakeside, for some hot refreshments. In the party were Hilli Brayer, Margaret Evans, Alice Rice, Dorothy Lewis, Constance Bogart, Gladys Hadley, William Morris, Carrol O'Rourke, Clarence Streidl, Leslie Poup, Alfred Randall, Paul Bachelor.

One of the Washington birthday parties that received a late mention was given by Miss Ida Short, of 1704 Howell street. The house was very pretty with a decoration of flags and bunting, while pictures of General and Mrs. Washington were further evidence of the occasion's merry making. Games and contests were enjoyed and refreshments were served. The guests were Misses Grace Smith, Verdelia Frisinger, Katherine Barrows, Neva Smith, Laura Haines, Mildred Denney, Ruth Jenkins, Anna Akers and Messrs. Seymore Haines, Carl Noll, Boyd Ehrsaple, Kenneth Wells, Orman and Norman Hobbs, Grant Merkelfelder, Merle Short, Mr. and Mrs. F. Short.

Master Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lennon, of South Harrison street, entertained a few playmates last evening at one of the prettiest of Washington parties. After a merry time had been spent in playing games Edward invited his friends to the diningroom where the best kind of a supper was served. On the table was a miniature rustic log with a hatchet sticking in it as if Edward had left it there before he went to school. There were cherries all about too, to make the log pretty and to tell the kind of a tree it came from. All of this fun was appreciated by the guests. Red ribbons and more cherries hung from the chandelier to make things still prettier. Good things to eat satisfied the hearty appetites of the guests, who were Frank Doriot, Stewart Zorbaugh, Frank Gruber, Charles and Roy Bracht, Robert Cramer, Archie Cassel, Howard Rud, Ralph Shaner. During the evening Miss Irene Lennon posed the boys in patriotic positions and took a flash light picture of them.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

English Players Tonight.

Sponsored by the Drama League of America, the Iden Payne English Players will be seen at the Majestic tonight.

The plays to be given are "Dolly Reforming Herself," by Henry Arthur Jones, and "Lonesome Like," by Harold Brigouse. Both these plays were great favorites during the long season which the Iden Payne Players has just brought to an end at the Fine Arts theater, Chicago. In the company are Mona Limerick, for several seasons leading lady of Miss Horniman's famous Manchester players; Walter Hampden, who created the role of Manson in "The Servant in the House;" C. Haviland Burke, Frances Waring, Whitford Kane, who last season made a sensation as Christopher Hawthorne in "Hindle Wakes." Other prominent members of the company are Dallas Anderson, Theodore Gibson, Helen Silverman, and everything will be produced under the personal direction and supervision of B. Iden Payne.

Excerpt From "Romance," Majestic Tomorrow.

"No matter how old one may be," says Bishop Armstrong, "there is always something that keeps a little youth burning in one's breast."

So saying he draws his chair to the fire and tells his grandson, who is bent upon a mad marriage, a story of youthful love that might have led to a mad marriage.

"Why, it seems," muses the bishop, "like yesterday."

"What does, grandfather?"

"That's just what I'm going to tell you. It's forty years ago. How time flies!"

The voice of the old man dies away; the stage grows dark; the old man and the youth vanish from view.

Slowly the lights rise again. We are in the New York of forty years ago and this is the scene of the great adventure of old Thomas Armstrong's life, young Thomas Armstrong, then, eager, zealous, serious Thomas, rector of St. Giles. We are in the age of black walnut and white marble, with a dash of smilax. A party is on at Cornelius Van Tuyl's and present is La Cavallini from the opera.

The play unfolds a frankly sentimentalized tale of the meeting, the brief love and the long parting of the singer and the young clergyman. It moves pleasantly along the prettified lines of such things and it will content the souls of those who like life assuaged for them. It contains no such searching, spiritual struggle as "Magda" contains, but it does contain a brilliantly drawn character.

AT THE TEMPLE

Tonight is the last opportunity Temple patrons will have to see the all-Keith bill with the sensational Kaufman troupe of cyclists headlining. This bill, including Catherine Hayes and Sabel Johnson the two huge women who have hung a smile that won't come off on the faces of thousands of Fort Wayne people that has packed the house at every performance.

There's consolation for those that are forced to miss this bill in the prospect afforded by the layout that opens Thursday afternoon and runs the remainder of the week. Walter Howe and Edna Northlane in their famous little sketch "In and Out" are billed to occupy the same position on the coming bill at the Temple as they did all over the Keith big circuit, namely the topline. Alice Teddy, the roller skating bear of the most novel animal acts in vaudeville is another big feature, while Santley and Norton, fresh from a big cabaret in Chicago will present their pianologue and their repertoire of bright catchy new songs. "The Graphaphone Girl" Adelaide Francis has something decidedly unique to offer Fort Wayne's fun loving population while McClure and Dolly round out the bill with their clever equilibristic juggling act.

Have you tried Perfect Steel Cut Coffee? It is delightful. 30c. wed-2-18-tf

AT THE EMPRESS

A rare comedy delight is being given at the Empress theater this week in the presentation of one of the cleverest offerings of present day vaudeville, "Pat and the Genii," played by the distinguished Irish comedian, Tom Nawn, and a clever company. "Pat and the Genii" is original in theme and treatment and offers an unusual vehicle for the quaint humor of the inimitable Tom Nawn. The idea of the sketch is ingenius and it is cleverly worked out. Pat is the gardener for Prof. Griffiths, an egyptologist, and collector of antiquities. Pat is sent to the express office for a package from Egypt. He has been instructed to be very careful of it and not to open the box. The mysterious package contains a magic jar which Pat sets down amid a picturesque scenic disorder of mummies. His curiosity arouses him and he shakes the jar. Darkness, lightning and thunder follow the profane act and Pat is frightened almost to death. Curiosity conquers fear, however, and he wrenches the top off the jar. The incidents that follow are irresistibly funny and beyond description. They must be seen to be appreciated. This is a charming little phantasy full of excellent humor and original witticisms, and played only as Tom Nawn can play them.

WOMAN HAS NO CHOICE—MUST TAKE WHAT LIFE GIVES HER—BABY OR ART.

WHERE IS MY SUSPENDERS ?
O! DEAR O! DEAR !
MA' MA' !
To be or not to be - that is the question, whether it is nobler in a woman to take up baby he has the colic

(By Nixola Greeley-Smith.)

Which shall a woman choose, a baby or an art?

Blanche Bates Creel, mother and famous actress, has voted for baby. She says that motherhood and a career are not incompatible, but mutually stimulating.

Kathleen Norris, famous author of "Mother," who also possesses an art and a baby has declared she would take the baby every time if she had to choose and that sometimes motherhood and a career are irreconcilable.

Personally I don't quite agree with either of those interesting women, though I incline much more to Mrs. Creel's opinion than to Mrs. Norris'.

Frankly I don't think a woman has any choice in the art or baby problem. According to the type she is, the art chooses her or the baby chooses her. And she really has very little to say about it. Up to 40 years ago life really said to us baby or art? And naturally nearly every woman said "baby." Men, on the contrary could say and did say art and baby, and they got both. That's the reason there have been so many great men in the realm of creative intellect than there have been so many more great men in the realm of creative intellect than there have but and their art life there would not have been any great men at all. Just imagine for a minute that the great musician Johann Bach had been named Johanna or that a certain Wilhelmina Shakespeare had written "Hamlet" and "Romeo and Juliet."

Of course, Wilhelmina would have been compelled to marry because nearly all highly gifted human beings feel the love thirst and even the average man or woman.

Then imagine Wilhelmina in the midst of a masterpiece wandering in that tantalizing maze of thought that leads so tediously to a new idea. Enter Mr. Wilhelmina who speaks as follows: "Say I wish you'd tell me what you did with my best suspenders. I can't find 'em anywhere." Wilhelmina abandons the masterpiece to look for the suspenders which are finally discovered on the pair of trousers Mr. Wilhelmina is wearing.

Back to work inspiration gone of course. Interval of 15 minutes trying to coax it back. Then violent howls from the direction of Wilhelmina minor's cradle. Art must me left once more to sooth Wilhelmina, it's colic or to keep her from swallowing the button hook.

Until modern conditions made life easier for women, and until ceaseless battering at the shut gates of prejudice broke down the venerable tradition that she existed merely to minister to man's physical needs, woman had no choice of any kind in the matter of her career. The life force, the mother instinct, pushed her into marriage and the baby did the rest!

Banana Pies After Caroline Coe's Way

The woman whose family are continually calling for pie will surely appreciate these new recipes:

Banana Pie.

Beat the yolks of two eggs with one-half cup of sugar until light and foamy. Peel and mash two bananas, beat into sugar and egg mixture. Add tiny pinch of salt. Add two cups of milk and turn into piepan lined with rich pie crust. Bake in hot oven until custard is set. When ready to serve cover with meringue made of whites of two eggs beaten stiff. Add three tablespoons of powdered sugar. Spread on top and brown.

Banana Pie No. 2.

Line a piepan with a rich pie crust. Bake and set aside to slightly cool. Just when ready to serve fill with sliced bananas. Sift lightly with pulverized sugar. Cover top with sweetened whipped cream and serve at once.

Daniel Frohman presents Cyril Scott in "The Day of Days" at the Jefferson today and tomorrow.

KITCHEN KINKS.

Powder the insides of new gloves to make them easier to slip on, and also, in the case of colored kid ones, to prevent the dye from staining the hands.

The cooler eggs are the quicker they will froth when whipped, so they should be beaten in a cool place. A pinch of salt always cools and freshens them.

* * *

Vegetable and fruit stains on the fingers can be removed by dipping the fingers in very strong tea for a few minutes and then washing them in clear, warm water.

Cyril Scott in "The Day of Days" today and tomorrow at the Jefferson.

Rice and Hominy Good Foods to Use

(By Prof. Edna Noble White.)

Macaroni, made from a wheat high in protein, especially if combined with cheese, is not to be undervalued as a meat substitute. The pasty mass that is frequently served has unfortunately prejudiced many people against the dish. Properly prepared, well seasoned and attractively served, it is an excellent substitute.

Rice may be used in place of macaroni occasionally, but it should be remembered that rice is lacking in protein, and therefore is not so valuable as the macaroni.

Hominy is another cereal containing considerable protein, which might well have a much wider use.

Cheese has been suggested in a number of the dishes, and its food value is high; averaging about one third protein and one-third fat. Since it is such a concentrated food it is usually more easily digested if it is combined with other food materials. This also increases its palatability for many people, who may like a mild cheese flavor, but do not care for it in its concentrated form.

In Riverside, Cal., a woman who was convicted of stealing rose bushes from a private estate was told to take her choice of a sentence or of restoring the bushes. She chose the latter, and under the direction of the court planted fifty rose bushes along the side of the road near the estate.

ROYAL
The world-wide standard
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder and its use is more economical than other leavening agents, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Cheap baking powders, containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or advertised as pure and wholesome. Such mixtures are not desirable for food ingredients. Most persons have learned to their sorrow that a low price does not always mean economy. This is especially so in a food article. No baking powder can properly be substituted for Royal.

Read the ingredient clause upon the label. If it does not show "Cream of Tartar," don't buy the powder.

IN THE CHURCHES

DELIVERED A LECTURE.

Dr. Batten Addressed Audience at Farther Lights' Banquet.

At the banquet given last evening at the First Baptist church by the Farther Light society, Dr. Samuel Zane Batten, professor of the Des Moines college, delivered a lecture on the subject, "Men and Social Service." He emphasized two good points, one that if ten young men get together and stand out for the right purpose and right plan they can alter the moral standing of the entire city. He also said that the sixteenth century was commonly called the century of social reform, but that the present century needed just as great a reform in regard to social service as the sixteenth.

The speaker arrived late and the classes from the south side and of the First church discussed the boy problem for a short time and the people present were also entertained by several solos by H. A. Hesketh.

INSTALL BROTHERHOOD OFFICERS.

Installation Services Preceded by Address by Rev. T. J. Johnson.

At the meeting last evening of the Brotherhood society of the Simpson M. E. church, when a waffle supper was served and the officers installed for the coming year, Rev. T. J. FREE TELEPHONE SERVICE TO END

City Must Pay for Connections Not Provided for in Franchise.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

General Manager W. L. Mocllering, of the Home Telephone company, has notified the board of public works that all telephones of that company used by the city and not provided for in the franchise under which the corporation operates in Fort Wayne, must be paid for at established rates. The letter says that it is forbidden by the state utilities law that free service shall be rendered by any public service corporation, though this cannot of course operate against any telephone service provided for and made a condition of the contract between the city and the telephone company. The city has several telephones in addition to those stipulated in the franchise and for these no charge has ever been made. General Manager Moellering advises the board that a bill for this service will be rendered from January 1st of this year.

SOUTHSIDE HIGH SCHOOL SITE.

Council Authorizes Board to Purchase Land on Calhoun Street.

Obedient to a general expression of sentiment of that portion of the southside lying east of Calhoun street, the Fort Wayne school board has chosen a site for the proposed Southside High school that is farther east and farther south than the site chosen some months ago at the corner of Fairfield avenue and Pontiac street. The new site, which fronts on Calhoun street from Cour street to Darrow street, a distance of 600 feet and extends back to Victoria avenue, a distance of 300 feet, was submitted to the city council last night. That body approved the board's choice and authorized the expenditure of $30,000 to purchase the twenty-four lots comprised in the tract. But two votes were cast against the proposal, Messrs. E. B. Smith, of the Fourth ward, and Robert Johns, of the Fifth ward, opposing immediate action on the ground that so important a matter should be referred to a committee. It is not probable that the construction of the $200,000 building contemplated will be started earlier than two years.

The council last night passed an ordinance appropriating $1,597.66 to the park board account to pay Trippeer & Son's judgment against the city, and another ordinance appropriated $600.66 to the same board to pay the Reservoir park assessment for the Murray street sewer. An ordinance to appropriate $1,000 to the street special account was referred to the committee on finance. The council approved the contract made by the board of works with the American Cast Iron Pipe company for water pipe and received favorable reports from the committee on claims concerning the claims of Joseph C. Potter for injuries, Josephine and Mary Zimmerman for refunder of paving assessment and of Mary Cook for injuries.

The committee on streets and alleys received for consideration the ordinance annexing certain lands east of the city limits and north of Maumee avenue and the petition of retail merchants for an ordinance to keep itinerant vendors out of the business district went to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances. The ordinance from the health department to prevent the carrying of lighted cigars, cigarettes or pipes into street cars was not introduced. It will be considered further by Councilman Ofenloch, who has the measure in charge, before presentation to the council.

After a lively debate on the proposal of President William A. Bayer of the council that the city issue bonds to pay its share of street paving if the comptroller cannot provide the money, discussion was cloture by the timely observation of Councilman Rogge that the council could better express its sentiments when such a matter was before it. Deitschel, Kinder, Schlebecker and Johns favored President Bayer's view, and Keller and Ofenloch opposed it as being an unnecessary expedient.

GARBAGE ORDINANCE WANTED.

Borad of Health Would Compel Draining and Wrapping of Waste.

The city health department has consulted Mayor Hosey and the board of works respecting an ordinance to require that before garbage is deposited in cans for collection it shall be drained and wrapped in paper. The matter will be referred to the legal department for an opinion as to the validity of such an ordinance. The practice of dumping garbage with a large fluid content into garbage cans in freezing weather destroys can, makes the work of the collectors much harder and slower and in some cases renders the removal of garbage impossible. At all times this practice vastly increases the cost both of hauling and destroying garbage. If rbage is drained into kitchen or backyard sinks and wrapped in waste paper before being placed in the cans the whole garbage situation is improved. As a matter of public education this was urged two or three years ago and some headway was made with the practice, but it deteriorated as agitation ceased. It is estimated that if all households made a practice of draining and wrapping garbage it would increase the efficiency of garbage collection at least 50 per cent, without adding a cent to the cost. If such an ordinance as is proposed would be valid, steps will be taken to get a measure of that sort passed; if not, an attempt to establish the practice by other means will be undertaken.

PARK BOARD MEETING TODAY.

Rudisill Boulevard Assessments Will Be Discussed.

At this afternoon's meeting of the city park board the assessments of benefits and damages for the widening of Rudisill boulevard from Calhoun street to Broadway will be taken under consideration as a preliminary to preparation of the rolls. The board made a trip over that part of the boulevard last week to see just what the situation is in respect of each piece of property that will be assessed.

This afternoon the board will also give tentative discussion to declaratory resolutions for the widening of Rudisill boulevard in those sections of the driveway east of Calhoun street that have not yet been improved.

MUCH SNOW IS REMOVED.

Street Superintendent Strodel wrought a transformation of conditions on the streets of the business district last night and today with his big gangs of snow shovelers. The great drifts thrown up along the curbs on both sides of the streets in the business center have been removed and not only have street traffic and store business been aided but a mighty nuisance averted when the thaw comes. Last night Superintendent Strodel had about forty men at work shoveling snow onto the traction company's flat cars and today he had between twenty-five and thirty shovelers and a dozen teams at work on the streets not reached by the car lines.

TRAVEL RESUMED OVER RAILROADS

ROADS IN BAD SHAPE

Fort Wayne is slowly recovering from the effects of the early week storm and for the first time since Sunday evening all interurban and steam roads are operating cars and trains into the city. The Fort Wayne and Springfield interurban succeeded in breaking through massive drifts of snow late Tuesday night and the first car, according to local traction officials, reached the city at 10 o'clock this morning.

The Lake Erie & Western, one of the roads forced to suspend operations due to the drifting snow, also forced a passageway through its tracks, and is operating trains on regular schedule today for the first time since Sunday.

Rural mail carriers and a few farmers, who braved the near zero weather to reach the city this morning, say that country roads are still in a bad condition, but expect the snow to be packed down in fairly good shape by tomorrow morning. In several places the roads are almost impassable, and traffic is being carried on under much difficulty.

In spite of the arrival of milder weather Tuesday, a severe drop was registered in temperature during the night, and the mercury at the government thermometer crawled down to a place just 1 degree above zero at 7 o'clock this morning. Local weather authorities say warmer weather is due in this part of the country and will remain for a few days at least.

For two days Fort Wayne has suffered a milk famine and the direct cause of the decreased supply was due to the storm, the snow tying up traffic over the Fort Wayne and Springfield line, a carrier that brings an average of 700 gallons of milk to the Fort Wayne dairies each day. According to dairy officials they were able to secure only about one-half of the usual daily supply, but the situation was relieved when at 2 o'clock this afternoon a milk train over the interurban brought in not only the daily supply, but a lot of surplus that was unable to move because of the tie-up.

Unable to secure fresh milk from country dairies through the local distributors, consumers started a run on "canned" milk Tuesday afternoon and grocery companies and other places handling condensed milk, were scarcely able to take care of the enormous demand.

Restaurants and hotels were not able to obtain anything like their average supply of milk, according to reports, and the famine, had it continued throughout today, promised to become serious. All difficulties have been removed now, however, since traffic has been resumed over the lines operating into the city.

The Rev. A. Smythe Palmer preached in Wanstead, England, a sermon which consisted of 800 monosyllabic words.

More than 99 per cent. of Alaska is owned by the United States, and this vast area was bought by the government for less than two cents an acre. For developing the country, about 10,000 miles of railroad will be required.

NO RETURN GAME FOR ZANESVILLE

Booking With Friars is Not to Be Filled by the Club.

BEAT THE CRIPPLES

Zanesville's appearance last night, when it beat the crippled St. Mary's club, may be the last here for some time as the team has declined to book a return game with the Friars, according to information given out here today.

Manager Charley Pask says he had a verbal agreement for another battle and the Zanesville players say no and that is where the matter stands. First Zanesville complained of its treatment here and then it decided the Friar club is made up of professionals and there is no prospect now that the present combination of Friar players, undoubtedly the strongest the club has ever had, will get a chance to show Zanesville just how much better it can play than when the clubs met early in the season.

Several offers have been made, one of which would have gained $200 for Zanesville if it had taken the proposition and had won the game, but the inducements were not strong enough to induce the club to take another chance.

Last night's victory did not add much glory to the Zanesville record as it played against a club that was badly broken up on account of the absence of one of its best players and the crippled condition of another.

No train service between here and Monroeville, the home of McArdle, prevented him from reaching Fort Wayne, and the death of a relative prevented Mike Hoffman from taking part. This sent Harkenrider and Haffner into the game. Miller went in when he ought to have been on crutches, and was forced to give way to Kiep, one of the Kekionga players, who was ordered into uniform to have him on hand for an emergency.

The score was 28 to 5 and it's a wonder it wasn't worse because the absence of the regulars simply made it impossible for St. Mary's boys to do any team work and they played a catch-as-catch-can affair and did the best they could under the conditions.

There was a good sized crowd present at the game and a big contingent that rooted for Zanesville, not because it loved the visitors more but because it loved St. Mary's trouble less. The players and summary:

Zanesville. 28.	St. Mary's. 8.
Keplinger	R. F. Miller-Harkenrider.
R. Hoopingarner	L. F. Haffner
Crowe	C. Berghoff
D. Hoopingarner	R. G. Eckrich
Walters	L. G. Harkenrider-Kelp.

FLETCHER KNOWS OSWEGO TACTICS

Drilled Friars Last Night in Team Play to Make Defense.

EXPECT TO STRUGGLE

Oswego's United States championship basket ball team has a fashion now and then of sending four men rushing down the floor when one of its number captures the ball in the enemy's territory so that the man in possession may toss the sphere to the fellow who manages best to elude the opposing player assigned to the duty of keeping him under cover.

Last night Art Fletcher, coach for the Friar basket ball team, spent a couple of hours working his players out and teaching them what to do when this play comes up tonight in what is expected to be the basket ball classic of the season as Oswego has the reputation of being the greatest combination playing the game.

The affair will cost the Friars a nice little sum of money and in spite of the fact that there is a deficit already it has been determined to stage this affair in the hope of at least breaking even, although there is every reason to believe that the debt of the club will be materially reduced by the receipts.

Everybody interested in basket ball wants to know whether or not any other teams are playing a better brand than the home talent, and if this is being done they want to know the whys and the wherefores and it is believed the Oswegos can demonstrate this.

Once upon a time the St. Louis Cardinals came to Fort Wayne to play baseball, and while the club was holding its regular position at the tail end of the National league pennant chase, most everybody thought it would simply eat Fort Wayne up.

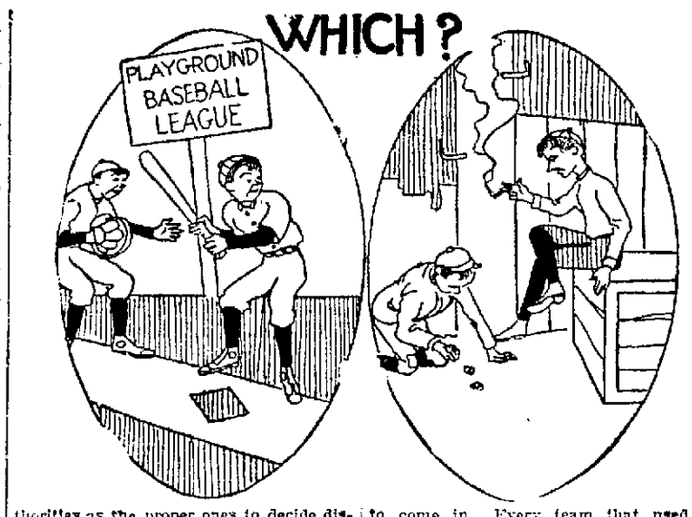
Charley Alberts was selected as the pitching victim of the expected slaughter, and he worked so well that he allowed the Cardinal combination just six hits and the troupe behind him beat the big leaguers. People who paid their good money didn't look for anything like this and the same sort of thing may happen tonight.

The Friars are going in to win, and if there fail in that they want to do the next best thing by making the score close. Nobody expects this, but the management wants it understood that the Friar players are not going to stand around and watch the champions shoot baskets and pass the ball. The home guard expects to be in the game every minute and to give the patrons a run for their money.

All of the Friar players reported in good condition last night and the best front will be presented with Benz and Fletcher on the firing line, Hill at center and Yarnelle and Dietrich doing guard duty.

For the reason that Lenten services will be held in the Cathedral early in the evening and because a number of patrons want to attend these and see the game too, the battle will not be started until 9 o'clock but will be put on promptly at that hour. Every effort will be made to have the hall heated for the occasion, and indications today point to the greatest exhibition Fort Wayne people have ever seen.

Boys of St. Louis Have Been Organized Under the Management of the Playground Association and a Base Ball League is Proposed.



(By Hugh S. Fullerton.)

St. Louis may be the joke of major league baseball, but that city has advanced and developed an idea which if extended to every city and town in America would be the greatest possible development of the national game, and one of the greatest things for the youth of American cities ever planned.

The Playground Baseball league of St. Louis has proved such a success that several other cities are taking up the plan. Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg authorities have studied it.

Rudowe Abeken, the young and enthusiastic head of the playgrounds in St. Louis, has started a vigorous campaign to organize every playground system of the large cities of the United States into one great league of municipal amateur baseball teams, directly controlled by the playground officials of the cities. At the recent meeting of the National Association of Amateur Baseball clubs held in Chicago, Abeken appealed to the promoters to indorse his municipal league and have the amateur teams from the playgrounds of different cities meet each fall for a national championship.

The St. Louis plan is the first comprehensive one put into effect, although many of the other cities have their playground teams. Abeken, when he left college, went into the playground work with the idea that the greatest success could be attained through devoting the most attention to the game most popular among the boys. He threw open the playgrounds of St. Louis to all the boy teams of the city.

At the start little effort was made to control the teams save to allot to them the playing hours. In this way the boys came to look upon the playground authorities as the proper ones to decide disputes, and they became the real government of amateur baseball in St. Louis.

Within a short time even outside teams appealed to the playground authorities for decisions. The move gave a great impetus to playground baseball. A league was formed including every playground in the city. Naturally teams that had been playing on the lots wanted to come in. Every team that used a playground diamond was eligible to enter the contests for the championship of that playground and the winner on each ground was entitled to enter the league and to battle for the prizes offered. The result has been that the playground league furnishes St. Louis with excellent amateur baseball games and kept many boys off the street corner gangs.

BERT HUMPHRIES WELL SUPPORTED

Cubs Got Runs for Him in the Games He Won for His Team.

RECORDS FOR YEAR

(By Ernest J. Lanigan.)

It is a matter of comment during the on and off seasons of baseball that certain teams bat harder and field better behind certain pitchers than they do behind others and it would naturally be assumed that the major league hurler who emerges from a season with the greatest total of victories to his credit would be the man who had obtained the finest backing—both on the offense and the defense. Inspection of the records, therefore, should reveal the fact that Walter Johnson, of the Nationals, the man whom the Chalmers jury of newspaper experts voted the player most valuable to his team, had a great number of runs procured for him by his associates, who ought also to be reasonably supposed to have given him nearly air tight support so that he could have led the field. The Senators neither hit heavily nor fielded very accurately when their star artillerist was laboring—at least they didn't in the twenty-nine complete games he pitched, twenty-three of which were victories and six of which were defeats. In these games the Federalists obtained 81 runs to their opponents' 42, 224 hits to their opponents' 179, 34 errors to their opponents' 58 and 22 double plays to their opponents' 16. Thirteen of Sir Walter's wins (complete games pitched only considered) were by a one run margin, two by a two run margin, three by a three run margin, one by a four run margin, two by a five run margin and two by a six run margin. Sir Walter had no reason to complain of the nerve displayed by his associates in rasping finishes, for they won five games for him in the ninth inning and one overtime battle.

Christy Mathewson, whom many fans would like to see oppose Johnson in the world's series, was furnished with an average of four runs per game by the Giants, or 1.21 more than Johnson received from the Nationals. An odd thing about "Big Six's" showing in the complete games he pitched was that the opposition made eight more hits than did the Giants, but forty-four fewer runs.

An artillerist who had just cause for complaint about the weak hitting behind him was "Rel" Russell, of the White Sox. He was furnished with an average of 3.15 tallies per conflict and frequently had to deny his adversaries a run in order to pull through a winner. The Phillies did not hit heavily behind their star, Grover Cleveland Alexander, getting for him in each combat only a trifling more average of runs than the Sox supplied to Russell. When Nap Rucker twirled, the Superbas were not in the fence-breaking class, though once they did make twenty hits behind him.

Vean Gregg got an average of 4.30 runs per game from the Naps, Al Demaree an average of 5.09 from the Giants, Joe Wood an average of 5.50 from the Red Sox, Eddie Plank an average of 5.61 from the White Elephants, and Bert Humphries an average of 6.46 from the Cubs. Of the ten star twirlers named, Alexander got the best support and Gregg the worst, while Rucker had the most double plays made behind him and Wood the fewest. These figures give further information on the subject:

	Ave Runs.	Ave Hits.	Ave Errors.	Ave D.P.
Cubs, behind Humphries	6.46	10.05	1.23	0.62
Athletics, behind Plank	5.61	8.83	1.28	0.50
Red Sox behind Wood	5.50	8.75	1.25	0.16
Giants behind Demaree	5.09	9.91	0.91	0.36
Naps behind Gregg	4.30	8.56	1.35	0.57
Giants behind Mathewson	4.00	8.08	1.16	0.76
Superbas behind Rucker	3.82	8.87	1.12	0.87

STEWART SHY ON RING KNOWLEDGE

Had No Advantage and Devlin and He May Try It Again.

CROWD SEES MATCH

Another meeting will be necessary to decide whether Tommy Devlin or Hal Stewart is the better boxer but it is not likely that it will be staged here as the two have been unable to settle in two matchs this very important question, but in each instance they have given spectators an exhibition worth while and the opinion among the best informed boxing fans is that Stewart must get a good man to teach him the game before he takes another flight at his foxy opponent.

That clean knockdown in the tenth round of the mill at Princess rink last night was accepted by Stewart's friends as giving him a shade in the struggle, but the fact that Devlin held him tight all the way until he fell before the only good blow the Payne boy landed in the milling is reason enough for calling the second affair a draw.

There is no doubt in the mind of the people who have seen both bouts, and who claim to know something of the game, that Stewart, with half of Devlin's ring knowledge would win handily in a match between the two, but until somebody takes the youngster in hand, somebody who knows how and who can impart the information, the two would probably battle on even terms through half a dozen matches.

Harry McHenry, of Montpelier, electrified the spectators with his fast work against Morris Flynn. This bout was as interesting, and some fans thought more so, than the main event on the card. He has not been in the ring long, and was stacked against a man who knows the ins and outs of boxing, but he went after his opponent strong and made a wonderful impression on the crowd.

Eddie Hart went down three times in the first round of his fight with Young Holzhauer and then stuck right through to the end and took a lot of punishment. Holzhauer's showing was pleasing to his friends.

"One Round" Klenke and Young McHenry put on the opening bout, which went the full six rounds. The crowd was big and attested the popularity of the new policy of the Summit City club.

WELSH THE REAL "CUT-UP" PLAYER

Outfielder is Just Fooling Around to Have a Fuss Over Him.

HE SIGNS A CONTRACT

Oliver H. Welsh, outfielder on the local baseball squad of 1913, is the real cutup among the players, and says that he wrote seven holdout letters just to get the newspapers to waste a little space on him.

Seems like a winter in Cleveland has imbued him with the ambition that he lacked to make him a good ball player, and he advises owner Claude H. Varnell that he is going to be on the top of the heap. He wrote just seven letters saying he would not sign and in the eighth he enclosed his contract. The letter reads like this:

"Cleveland, O., Feb. 20, 1914.

"Mr. C. Varnell:

"Dear Friend—I'm with you, president. You know a fellow likes to make a little fuss so the newspaper don't forget him. Do you catch the thought waves? I've got to be before the public this year, and I've just started to make them use a little space. Tell all I'm going to give the Fort Wayne club the best I have and that my ambition is for the top. Wishing you grand success, awaiting orders. Respectfully,

"OLIVER H. WELSH.

"P. S. Glad to hear you landed Wolfe. I think he will make a good man for our team."

This Wolfe is one Harold Wolfe, an infielder picked up by Tommy Atkins, and said to be a wonderful youngster. All of them are when there is snow on the ground.

In competition with him will be Nelson Winbush, of St. Louis, who comes with the recommendation of James T. Burke. Billy Colligan has signed and only Fred Bratchi and Toothman are to be heard from, and they will sign. Toothman is a left-handed pitcher bought from Steubenville when the Interstate league disbanded, and who left the club after pitching a game at Evansville. He did not play here at all and has been under suspension.

MATHEWSON IS WAITING.

Will Not Sign Contract With Federals Until He Has Talked to New York Club Official.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 25.—Before signing a contract with the Giants or accepting the proposition of President Gilmore to name his own terms for managing the Brooklyn Federal club, Christy Mathewson said today that he would talk the matter over with John McGraw, the manager of the Giants, or some representative of his.

Mathewson was planning to leave today for the Giants' spring training camp at Marlin Springs, Tex., where he expects to meet McGraw or some other official of the club.

"Some people have the report that I have already signed my contract with New York," said Mathewson today. "I have not, and I am considering the offer of the Federal league. I shall decide on neither proposition until I see McGraw or some one else in authority."

Mathewson said beyond mailing him a contract, as required by National league laws, the Giants so far had not communicated with him nor had any of the league officials. He is, therefore, a "free agent" and at liberty to bargain with the Federal league or to play Gilmore's proposition for better terms from New Yor, he said.

GREAT FOOTBALL PLAYER DEAD.

New York, Feb. 25.—Announcement was made today of the death on Monday of Alexander Moffat, famous as a Princeton university football player of the early eighties, and closely identified with the game as advisory coach, member of the rules committee and official ever since. He was 51 years old. Death was due to pneumonia. Moffat was one of the greatest drop kickers the game ever produced. He was able to score from long ranges with either foot.

KING GEORGE TO SEE GAME.

London, Feb. 25—King George and several members of the royal family are to be present tomorrow at the baseball game between the New York and Chicago teams. The game is to be played at the Chelsea football grounds. Practically the entire American colony will attend, together with the staffs of the embassy and the consulate general.

The king, who is an ardent follower of football and cricket, has never witnessed a first-class baseball game. He announced to his suite when he heard that the American teams were coming to England that he would see a game if possible. Today he definitely notified the managers he would attend.

AIR OF MYSTERY IS STILL THERE

President Heilbroner is Back But Has Nothing for Papers.

ARRANGING A DATE

That deep air of mystery that has pervaded the offices of the Central league since President Louis Heilbroner "gumshoed" his way out of the city last week is still there today and war scribes have not been able to penetrate it.

Potential doings are under way but are at a stage when publicity is the thing least desired, and the president is simply sawing wood and keeping right on the job.

A report that the Federal league promoters in Toledo had secured a chance at Swayne field and that the park vacated by the American association team will be available, is denied by Mr. Heilbroner. He says matters are so arranged that if the Central league places a team in Toledo it will use Swayne field and he is not worrying.

News from Terre Haute to the effect tha he had fixed the date for the meeting on Wednesday of next week was a bit unwarranted, he says, as he has not fixed positively either the time or place for the gathering.

He was in telephone communication with the directors today and when he has reached all of them he will be able to say just when the session will be held and where.

AMERICAN GOLFERS TO MEET THE BEST DURING THE NEXT SEASON.

All American golfers are interested; some enthusiastic, some inclined to complain of the conditions under which the British open golf championship must be played this year.

A new and radical departure has been arranged for the qualifying rounds, a change which is certain to be the severest possible test for competitors.

The arrangements recently decided upon by the managers who have charge of the great tournament to be held on Prestwick links on June 18 and 19, compel each entrant to play the preliminary qualifying rounds over two other English courses. All competitors must play one round on each of the qualifying courses, and the 100 returning the lowest scores for these rounds will be permitted to play in the championship four rounds over the Prestwick course.

This change has been necessitated by the enormous number of entries for the great events; and it appears to the golfers the happiest solution of the difficulty possible in that it will be a true test of the skill of the players. The playing of the championship on three links of entirely different character will eliminate to a large degree the element of luck.

Francis Ouimet, the American champion; Jerome Travers, the perennial championship contestant; Heinrich Schmidt, who just now is playing wonderful golf in California, and Fred Herreshoff, are in represent the United States in the British open event.

Weakness, Lost Vitality

My combined treatment for these troubles, so common among those who have become weak and worn out is remarkably good. No one believes how quickly it benefits until they have taken it. It overcomes weakness, nervousness, pain in back, lack of energy, ambition and strength—it's just the treatment I have found so effective in treating such cases. BE A MAN ONCE MORE.

Blood Poison, Old Sores, Lupus, Epithelial Growths

And all Skin diseases are permanently and forever cured by Dr. Moreland's Pacific Blood-Cell Remedies. They act directly on the Blood Cells, eliminate the poison and restore the internal organs to their normal conditions. I am particularly anxious to hear from men who have been treated by other physicians without receiving any beneficial results or a permanent cure.

Varicose Veins Cured

I cure this affliction without pain or detention from business. Soreness, swelling and congestion of the dilated veins vanish quickly. Losses are checked. A healthy circulation of blood is re-established, the atrophied parts are developed and the old-time feeling of warmth, vigor and vitality speedily returns. Avoid dangerous operations. I can give you the quickest, safest and surest cure known to medical science.

Contracted Diseases

IN CONTRACTED DISEASES my patients are thoroughly cured in less time than any other less thorough forms of treatment require in producing doubtful results. I don't use strong, painful, injurious injections that do great harm. My method cures without pain; gives immediate benefits and a lasting cure.

Kidney and Bladder Diseases Quickly Cured.

They are often caused by early excesses, alcoholic liquors and severe sickness, the usual symptoms being chilly and feverish spells, worn out feeling, puffiness under the eyes, drains, smarting, burning and swelling. My long study and extensive practice in treating Kidney diseases insures success in all cases not past the curative stage. I determine the condition by analysis of urine, and the many severe kidney troubles I have cured, after they had been given up by other doctors, give me great confidence in my method.

RUB PAINS FROM SORE, LAME BACK

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. -Adv.

914 For Blood Diseases

Prof. Erlich's IMPROVED SALVARSAN (or 606), the POSITIVE REMEDY for BLOOD DISEASE. If you have inflammation of the mucous membrane in the mouth and throat, eruptions on any part of the body, aching of the bones, spots and all discoloration of the skin which signify serious blood infection, let me give you this FAMOUS TREATMENT. Results are marvelous. All symptoms vanish immediately as if by magic. Under this system of treatment it is utterly impossible for poison of specific nature to remain in the blood, and purity and health are the results. Even if any of these cases are hopeless—what is needed is the right treatment. I have seen and treated hundreds of these cases. What I have done for others I surely can do for you.

Nervous Decline Or debility of men means DEBILITY of the nerves and nerve centers or general debility of the whole nervous system. No man can be strong if his nervous system is impaired, because the nerves control the blood and when the proper circulation in any part ceases, disease is bound to result. My thorough training has given me great advantages in treating pelvic disorders from which nearly all nervous disorders and debilities originate. Because I have thorough knowledge of the seat and cause of the disease, which is always necessary to insure success in treating any afflictions. My thorough course of treatment immediately stops nervousness, relieves backache and by adding flesh and muscle strength the patient is restored to health and robust vitality. Be a Manly Man.

Varicocele is simply veins filled with curdled or stagnant blood occurring in any part of the body. Every man afflicted with Varicocele if long standing knows that it has blighted his life and that he has made a great mistake in not having himself treated.

My method removes the Varicose condition so that circulation is resumed, the nervous system is restored by the administration of a tonic and a complete restoration is certain in every case.

Special Diseases Itching, burning, scalding, painful passages of water. Strong injections, strong remedies seldom benefit—they cause obstructions of the Urinary Canal.

My treatment stops every symptom and relieves in a few days. It is scientific—that's the only cure way to be benefited. I can restore you so quickly and easily that you will be surprised. I will give you just the result and treatment you are looking for at the lowest possible cost.

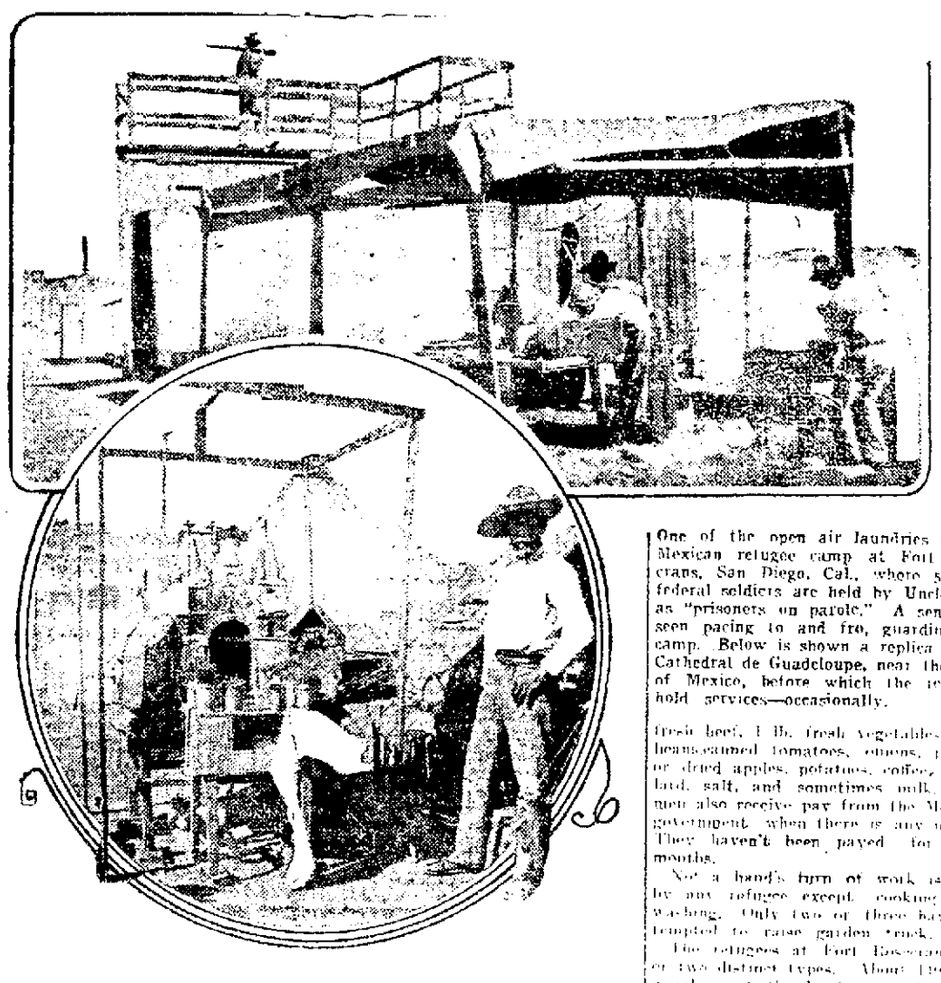
IT'S COSTING UNCLE SAM $1,800 A DAY TO FEED AND SHELTER MEXICAN REFUGEES IN TWO "PAROLE" CAMPS.



One of the open air laundries in the Mexican refugee camp at Fort Rosecrans, San Diego, Cal., where 500-odd federal soldiers are held by Uncle Sam as "prisoners on parole." A sentry is seen pacing to and fro, guarding the camp. Below is shown a replica of the Cathedral de Guadeloupe, near the City of Mexico, before which the refugees hold services—occasionally.

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 25.—How would you like to be a federal Mexican refugee with nothing to do but eat three square meals a day, play baseball, hop scotch, or "conquinan" (a Mexican card game), and bask in the sunshine of Southern California? That's what some 500 of them have been doing for the past six months at the Fort Rosecrans detention camp on San Diego bay. And the 5,000 starved and ragged fugitives who came over the line at Presidio, Tex., quartered at El Paso, the expense of two good sized towns will have to be borne by Uncle Sam until who knows when?

It is estimated that the cost of feeding these 5,500 men, women and children will be from $1,500 to $1,800 per day or an average of 24 cents per day each.

There are now 403 men and 138 women and children living at Fort Rosecrans in tents furnished by the United States government living far better, in many cases, than they ever lived in their own country. Single men live in conical tents, accommodating eight; married men in single tents or shacks. The sanitary conditions are excellent, with bath and conveniences for men, women and children in separate buildings, also large open air laundries.

There is little sickness, owing to the United States medical corps. No babies have been borne during the 10 months they have been at Fort Rosecrans.

Every 10 days rations are distributed. According to Col. Emilio Kosterlitzky, in charge of the refugees for the Mexican government, none runs short before the 10 days expire. The rations consist of: 1 lb. of flour, 1 lb. fresh beef, 1 lb. fresh vegetables, pink beans, canned tomatoes, onions, prunes or dried apples, potatoes, coffee, sugar, lard, salt, and sometimes milk. The men also receive pay from the Mexican government when there is any money. They haven't been payed for three months.

Not a hand's turn of work is done by any refugee except cooking and washing. Only two or three have attempted to raise garden truck.

The refugees at Fort Rosecrans are of two distinct types. About 150 were members of the border patrol under Col. Kosterlitzky, working out of Nogales, Mexico. They are known as federal gendarmes or the border guards and besides protecting property and chasing bandits, conveyed bullion or other valuable merchandise shipments, or escorted strangers into the interior.

The others are infantrymen of a lower status. Since Kosterlitzky's men were forced to flee to American soil last August when a United States officer ordered them to stop firing at rebels because shots were crossing to the American side of the Nogales street, and since the infantrymen came over the line in April when their ammunition was reduced to five rounds per man, the 500 federals have been virtually prisoners of the United States.

The camp is surrounded by a 10 foot, 3 inch mesh barb wire fence and a patrol of United States soldiers around it, night and day.

The train was stopped within a short distance and a careful examination of Wynkoop disclosed no injuries, and only a few rents in his clothing.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.—Adv.

RUN DOWN BY A HAND CAR

Wheels Pass Over Both Legs of Conductor C. H. Ginty and Bruise Them.

WABASH BAGGAGE ELEVATOR MOVED

New Depot May Be Opened Tuesday Morning—Shops News.

Charles H. Ginty was knocked down and run over by a handcar driven by some section men at Lima at 6:30 o'clock this morning and is in the hospital in that city. The wheels passed over both of his legs, cutting and bruising the flesh badly, but none of the bones were broken and his condition is not serious. Mr. Ginty is a conductor of a local freight train running between Lima and Crestline, and was about to start out of Lima when he met with the accident. He resides in Lima now, but is a former Fort Wayne man, reading here the greater portion of his life. He is a brother to Passenger Conductor M. O. Ginty, of the Pennsylvania.

QUICK MOVEMENT OF SILK TRAIN.

Largest Shipment of the Japan Product to Reach New York.

The largest and most valuable train load of silk ever imported from Yokohama, Japan, has just reached New York. This special train was made up of eight large steel baggage cars in charge of a passenger train crew and the value of the cargo was considerably above $2,000,000. Within three weeks after the silk left Yokohama it was in the hands of the manufacturers in New York city. The trip from Tacoma to Chicago was over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul route and it was made in four days and nine hours. This shipment did not pass through Fort Wayne, as does much of the shipments of silk, but went to Pittsburg via the Panhandle lines. The great value of this freight leads one to suppose that there was great danger of robbery, and in fact the railways are inclined to that opinion, also, for armed guards are aboard all trains that have two or more car loads of the silk. There has never, so far as could be learned here, been any attempt to steal silk en route to the factories in New York. Speaking about the matter a St. Paul railway official said: "No, we do not fear attacks from train robbery. You see the bulk of these bales would make it impossible to make way with much of the shipment unless another train was arranged for to cart away the plunder. It comes in bales of about 150 pounds. Stolen silk would be a pretty difficult thing to dispose of without detection for the big importers know almost to a pound the amount of raw material sent to this country. Besides, this train and its precious tonnage is insured for $2,000,000."

MOVING BAGGAGE ELEVATOR.

Will Be in Operation in New Depot Last of Week.

A gang of carpenters from the maintenance of way department of the Wabash removed the last piece of the baggage elevator in the old depot to the new building this morning and are now engaged in setting it up again. The motor has been heard from, after being delayed in route two or three weeks, and will be here some day this week. It is quite probable that the company will be handling its Fort Wayne passenger and express business from the new station next Tuesday. Baggage is now being handled at the platform east of the old depot, the elevator being out of commission, as stated. When the move from the old to the new depot is made, it will be immediately after the early morning trains have passed through the city.

STEAM TRAIN TO RESCUE.

Big Four Sends Relief Out to Stalled Interurban Car.

An interurban car on the Union Traction line was stalled for over six hours between Wabash and Lafontaine Monday night and the passengers suffered greatly from the cold. Finally a Big Four passenger train was made up and sent to the rescue of the suffering passengers and they were transferred to the steam line and brought into Wabash. The interurban had become stalled in huge snow drifts far out in the country and it is said the condition of some of the passengers was serious when they were finally rescued by the Big Four train crew. On the rescuing train were several county officials and others ready to dig their way to the interurban if necessary.

MACHINIST HAMILTON HURT.

Well Known Pennsylvania Machinist Has Accident.

Allen Hamilton, machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, had both legs scalded, bruised and cut yesterday afternoon, when a chain used in hoisting a heavy engine driving rod, slopped, allowing the end of the piece to fall against Mr. Hamilton and slide down his legs. He was taken to the company's surgeon in a taxicab and then sent to his home. Fortunately no bones were broken and Mr. Hamilton will be at work again in a short time. Only recently he reported for duty after being disabled by accident.

ARE AGAIN FIREMEN.

O. E. Stahl, R. N. Gatchell and Samuel Black, yard firemen, who had been calling Pennsylvania engine crews during the dull season, have been returned to their former duties in the yards. C. H. Jones and C. Gatchell, furloughed firemen, are serving temporarily as extra callers. It is not known how long this arrangement will be in force.

BECOMES CRANE OPERATOR.

N. E. Work, one of the furloughed men in the power department of the Pennsylvania shops, has been recalled to take charge of a traveling crane in the shops. He succeeds R. M. Langstaff whose resignation was mentioned by The Sentinel yesterday.

STORM TROUBLES OVER.

Trains on all of the steam roads running into Fort Wayne are moving over the lines today, though some of the roads have not fully recovered from the snow blockade and their trains are late in reaching the city. The worst is over, however, and by tomorrow the trouble will have entirely disappeared.

HAD ITS BIRTH IN FORT WAYNE

United Title Insurance Company is Organized at Indianapolis.

LARWILL AN OFFICER

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—That the incorporation of the United Title Insurance company at Indianapolis yesterday was the result of the fact that the idea of title insurance is growing rapidly everywhere was the statement of Kenneth Larwill, of Fort Wayne, who is vice president of the new company.

The company, which has a capital of $100,000, proposes to do a title insurance business in all parts of the state, insuring property owners against defects in their titles and insuring owners of mortgages against defects in the title to the property covered by the mortgage.

The growth in the popularity of the title insurance idea in other communities in the last few years has been remarkable, Mr. Larwill says. At a recent meeting of the American Association of Title Men, held at Cedar Point, Ohio, it was stated that about half of all the real estate transactions in New York were accompanied by title insurance policies, and that nearly as many deals, proportionately were so insured in Chicago.

The new company had its birth in Fort Wayne some time ago, immediately following a meeting of the Indiana Title association, though it has no official connection with the association. Several of the men attending that meeting held a conference at a hotel and decided that Indiana was far behind other states in the matter of title insurance and they could see a time, close at hand, when there would be an increasing demand for services such as this company will render. This meeting was followed by others and the incorporation today was the result. The officers of the company are:

President—Myron E. Cole, Shelbyville.

Vice President—Kenneth Larwill, Fort Wayne.

Secretary Treasurer—Willis N. Coval, Indianapolis.

Second Vice President—J. R. Morgan, Kokomo.

Third Vice President—William Rowland, Anderson.

Fourth Vice President—Charles E. Lambert, Rockville.

Fifth Vice President—Charles A. McGonagle, Muncie.

In addition to these the directors are Frank R. Hale, Shelbyville; William A. Ferris, Fort Wayne, and Wendell W. Coval and Frank C. Starkey, both of Indianapolis.

AUNT OF M'KINLEY DIES.

Mrs. Nellie McKinley Winters, 83, Passes Away at Winamac.

She was the mother of ten sons and one daughter and nine sons survive. She refused to allow a doctor to treat her in her last illness, saying that in all her life she was never attended by a physician and would not do so then.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

WETS CARRY CONNERSVILLE.

Town Gives Majority of 450 for Saloons in Option Election.

Connersville, Ind., Feb. 25.—In the local option election held here yesterday, the "wets" won by a majority of 450. They carried each of the eight precincts and in one ward received a majority of more than 200 votes.

Three years ago Connersville was voted "wet" by thirty five votes, after two years of temperance.

The saloon advocates are certain that the election went in their favor because of letters which were mailed to the residents day before yesterday, explaining how the tax rate would be increased if the saloons were voted out.

The "drys" were hopeful of victory, as many "wet" advocates had left the city in the last year. When the election was called they and the saloon men agreed to proceed in an orderly manner and the peaceful attitude existing between both forces has marked the campaign.

A blaze starting in a wooden partition on the fourth floor at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening called the fire department to the old Arlington hotel building, corner of Lafayette and Columbia streets and damaged the property to the extent of $60. The fire had its origin from a disconnected stove pipe.

France, in 1913, exported silk fabrics valued at $31,115,460.

MANY ORIGINAL MASQUES.

Annual Masquerade Ball of the Turners Held Last Evening.

A large crowd attended the annual masquerade ball of the Turners held last evening in the Turners' hall and many original masques could be observed among the crowd. A general good time was had and judges awarded the prizes to the following people for the best masques: Mrs. ormian Bollhauve, a peasant lady; Mrs. Charles Meyer, milk woman; Jennie Dorzdowski, gypsy girl; Miss Anna Agne, representing spring. The gentlemen who won prizes were G. H. Russell, Albert Wefel, Arthur Loshe, and Miss Rosa Dorzdowski, who appeared as a Russian prince.

The Fort Wayne lodge of Improved Order of Red Men has been conducting a membership campaign and a public meeting is to be held Thursday evening at the Aldine hall, at which time Past Great Sachem J. W. Yeasly, of Nebraska, will deliver an address on the subject, "Redmanship in Indiana."

YIELD TO OLD SUPERSTITION.

Officers Photograph Dead Girl's Eyes to Detect Murderer.

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 25.—Yielding to persons who have faith in age-old superstition, the authorities here have photographed the eyes of Theresa Hollander. State's Attorney Tyer admitted this, saying that it was the belief of many that the retina of a murdered person retains the image of the murderer.

Whether the negative held by the authorities showed anything of this nature was not revealed by the state's attorney. Neither did he say whether it would be introduced as evidence in any proceedings growing out of the clubbing to death of Miss Hollander in a cemetery here a week ago.

At a mock trial to be held by the Blackford Law club, Hans C. Meland and Attorney Cochran will defend a man named Kimmel charged with murder. The case will be prosecuted by John G. Jones, E. Crosby and Louis Plost and ladies are invited to sit on the jury. The trial will be held March 4.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Wheat eased off today owing to favorable weather and to the fact that cables were disappointing to the bulls. There was a steadying influence, however, in foreign bids close to the market. Prices opened a shade to ⅛@¼c lower and after a temporary rally seemed again inclined to sag.

Closing prices were easy, though at a net advance of a shade.

Corn hardened as a result of cold weather and decreased visible. Opening figures, which varied from ⅛c off to a shade advance, were followed by an upturn all around.

The close was nervous, ¼@⅜c to ⅝c above last night.

Enlarged consumption of oats for feed gave confidence to bulls in oats. The market, therefore, readily sympathized with the corn finish.

Provisions rose on account of the smallness of hog receipts. Initial sales were a shade to 7½c higher, and much of the gain continued.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 25.—Prices were generally lower at the opening today. The market remained in an apathetic condition and recessions among the prominent stocks were slight. Mexican Petroleum and Missouri, Kansas & Texas lost nearly a point.
Speculators sought to influence general selling today by uncovering weak spots, confining their efforts largely to the southwestern railroad shares. Increasing weakness of low priced stocks and renewal of selling here for foreign account reacted in the market, which was generally lower, but losses at no time during the morning were severe. Bonds were easy.
The market closed weak. Pressure was applied more vigorously because of the reported unfavorable turn in the Steel and Copper stocks. Stocks poured out in quantity and the bears hammered the list energetically. Final figures showed losses of one to three points.

THE DAILY GRAIN LETTER.

(Furnished by J. S. Phillips, North American Building, Fort Wayne, Ind.)

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Wheat continues firm, with May wheat 95c, a new high on the movement, and highest since the 97½c of September last. Liverpool was quiet, but Antwerp, which represents Argentine wheat clinched 5c. Small receipts in Canada were affecting sentiment. Clearances again small at 344,000 bushels. Some export business proceeding every day. Just enough to help the wheat prices. Broomhall weekly summary again friendly. Broomhall makes world's crop 3,688,000,000 bushels vs. 632,000,000 bushels last year. World's visible is 199,000,000 bushels. Last year it was 200,000,000 bushels. No wheat damage as yet. American exports for week again promise to be small at 3,000,000 bushels.
Corn and oats have stirred up small March reserve estimates. B. W. Snow's guess of 282,000,000 bushels of corn is voted a bull help. Goodman issued another guess today of 500,000,000 bushels of corn for the seven surplus states and 200,000,00 bushels oats. Both totals are very light. New York reports a much better oats demand. Illinois is offering only small amounts of corn. Oats visible will probably decrease another half million this week. Sales of corn to east are a shade improved. Provisions are at anchor. Hogs hold around $8.75.
Stocks more active today and lower all around, under the Mexican strain. English financial Journal persist in declaring a continental trade boom very unlikely. Wall Street Journal says railroads will have to finance without help of a rate increase, which is a handship.

THACKERAY WORK TO BE AUCTIONED

Lambert's Collection on View Previous to Disposal

VALUABLE RELICS

New York, Feb. 25. Manuscripts and other relics of William Makepeace Thackeray by Major William H. Lambert, of Philadelphia, Pa., since dead, have been placed on exhibition in the Anderson art galleries, Madison avenue and Fortieth street, preparatory to disposal at auction.
The collection, of 1,331 items, is described as the most complete and important assemblage of Thackeray material in existence. It contains original manuscripts, no less than 200 autograph letters, hundreds of original drawings and a complete set of the first editions of Thackeray's published works. The most important items Major Lambert obtained from Lady Ritchie, Thackeray's daughter.
One of the most interesting manuscripts is that of "The Rare and the Ring; or, the History of Prince Giglio and Prince Bulbo," written and profusely illustrated by the author on ninety sheets of paper. This fairy talk was not written for publication, but to please some child friends of Thackeray when he was in Rome in 1853, and especially one little girl who was ill. To her the text was read and the pictures were shown each day as they were finished.
This manuscript differs much from the tale as it was printed, and the illustrations, several of which are in colors, are much more spirited than those in the book, which were redrawn. The manuscript was never sent to the printer, but was copied by members of Thackeray's family.

Another Original Manuscript.

The original manuscript of "The Adventures of Philip" is written on 519 sheets of paper of various sizes, most of it in the author's handwriting, but some of it by his daughter or a secretary, to whom he dictated.
Another valuable item is "The Whitey-Brown Paper Magazine," consisting of ten lithographed leaves of text and illustrations for a periodical which was to have borne that name. Nine plates are from the original drawings by Thackeray for "The Veracious History of Dionysius Diddler," with explanatory text, also by Thackeray. This is the only known copy, and these few pages are all that remain to indicate that Thackeray hoped to publish such a magazine. The illustrations are good caricatures of Dr. Lardner, editor of the Cabinet Cyclopedia, and Lord Bulwer-Lytton. The "magazine" is forceful satire.
Another rarity is the first edition, printed in 1841, of "The Second Funeral of Napoleon." It is a mere pamphlet, published before the author became famous. There also is the "King Glumpus," described as an "Interlude in One Act," printed in 1837 for private circulation, with three illustrations by Thackeray. The book is believed to have been written by John Barrow. No copy ever before has been offered at auction in this country. Also, there is Thackeray's first separate publication, "Flore et Zephyr," published in 1836, when Thackeray, disappointed in his hope to become a painter, undertook to turn his sketches to financial account. The nine plates represent scenes in the life of a ballet girl.

SWEENEY WANTED SOME LAW ON 'EM

Caused Prosecutor's Office to Yell for Police and Sweeney is Hooked.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

Jack Sweeney and some fellow sensers put in a pleasant hour or so fighting over the battles of the Boer war while they absorbed heat and corn licker in Kelly's saloon, on Calhoun street, yesterday afternoon. The spirit of belligerency thus engendered and the heated character of Sweeney's argument at length provoked one of the joint debaters to give Sweeney a poke in the eye and eke the jaw. Sweeney refused to demean himself to a brawler's level by poking back, but he hotfooted down to the office of Prosecuting Attorney Harry Hilgeman to swear out a warrant for the arrest of his assailant. Prosecutor Hilgeman looked Sweeney over, Deputies Callahan and Doolin scented him and the police were sent for. Sweeney had invaded the office with a souse that was an offense and an abomination. He was carted to the station and this morning Judge Kerr gave him eleven days.

Young Poles Are Fined.

Hayden street contributed its little periodical blood-letting affair last night when Charles Lapinski was pinked in the breast with a knife in the hands of his cousin, Stanislaw Sackaweski. The lads, each aged about 20, had a quarrel in the street at 1102 Hayden street, as the result of too much drink and Sackaweski used his blade. Two stitches were taken in the wound at the police station. Both boys pleaded guilty to public intoxication this morning and paid fines of $11.

Other City Court Cases.

Otto Wooley, who said he was a bartender thrown upon the world by the new liquor laws in Ohio was begging on Grand street. He begged harder this morning for release, which will surely happen to him in eleven days.

Jim Carmody was drunk and making a filthy spectacle of himself on Calhoun street last evening. He drew eleven days.

Joe Stanton, known of old, dropped in here to rest his pinions during a little flit from St. Louis to Dayton. He couldn't get by Fort Wayne without staging an old time exhibition and he was sent in. He promised to beat a straight track from here to Dayton and was allowed to start.

Calvin Parker, an aged gentleman, who is always waiting for an Ohio electric car to take him out to New Haven, or Maples, or Nails, or some other place near which is a farm that he is always trying to get back to. He declared he had a ticket to some point down the line and flashed a marked-down green tag of some bargain sale labeled "50c" and tried to spring it on the court as a ticket. The court told him to go as fast as he liked on it and Cal started for the country—maybe.

Ralph Daily was going to palliate the shine he wore when toted into the police station last night, but Judge Kerr plugged the narrative and told it himself. The judge, for diversion, took a ride with the wagon last night and Mr. Daily constituted the haul. He was allowed to go.

John Hannan poked his head in the sand house in the Wabash railroad yards and said, "It's bully warm in here. I'll stay." "Ye'll go out and tote an armful of coal if ye do," says Tom O'Brien. "I'll steal coal for no man," Hannan says he said. "Then ye'll soak up the heat of none of this," says O'Brien. "Who'd want to," says Hannan. And just for that O'Brien rammed his fist in Hannan's face and O'Brien's arrest followed. Fifteen days O'Brien will spend in jail.

James Metzger came up from South Whitley, got a souse, wouldn't go home, got arrested and this morning got eleven days.

The case against Frank Thorne, for drunkenness, was continued a day to give his souse a chance to evaporate.

George Shahreen pleaded guilty to drunkenness, was fined $1 and costs and then appealed his case to the circuit court.

John A. Hughes, charged with forgery, was bound over to the circuit court and went to jail in default of $500 bond.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.

"We have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past month and consider it an indispensable. Its effect is almost instantaneous, and there is no use talking, it is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We do not say this for pay but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and want the people to know it and use it."—Columbus Safeguard, Columbus Junction, Iowa. The above editorial appeared in the Columbus Safeguard almost forty years ago. At that time the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was confined to a few counties in Iowa. It now enjoys a world-wide reputation and many thousands have testified to its excellence. For sale by all dealers—Adv.
